

Melton returns to Board of Education

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

Edward Dewey Melton, who served on the Granite City Board of Education from April 1977 to April 1980, was chosen in a 5-1 board vote Tuesday night to rejoin the board for five months.

Citing his experience, the board members decided to name him to a position extending until the next school election, in November.

The final two years of the unexpired term of Stephen Saltich will be decided in that election, and Melton indicated he will be a candidate.

Melton was one of eight potential appointees interviewed by the board Tuesday night.

To qualify to replace Saltich, now a city alderman, Melton succeeded in having his residence annexed to the municipality June 2. Board Member David Partney opposed the appointment, commenting during the vote that the electorate rejected Melton in the 1980 election.

The board praised the qualifications of those appearing for interviews and said many members of the group could have served effectively if selected for the interim appointment.

Those voting for Melton said he sometimes differed with other board members in past discussions of school issues, but that he earned their respect by always putting the overall good of the school district uppermost in his thoughts and actions.

Also interviewed by the six board members whose terms are continuing were James W. Foley, Richard Fry, Raymond McGee, Mrs. Ruben (Norma) Mendoza, Miss Selma Nelson, Floyd "Butch" Peterson and John F. "Jack" Tritsch.

Each gave a resume of his or her experience and viewpoints, and responded to general questions from the board.

Mrs. Robert (Valerie) Stevens had expressed interest in the position but was out-of-town. The board said it needed to fill the vacancy this week in order to avoid the cost of holding an immediate, special election.

Melton, a senior systems engineer with IBM in St. Louis, is 42 years old and resides at 2509 Westmoreland Drive.

Born in Stewart County, Tenn., he has resided in the Granite City area for 32 years. He and his wife, Karen, are the parents of Cindy, 14, Eddie, 11, Laurie, nine, and Kristi, four.

A member of Second Baptist Church, Melton has served as a Sunday school teacher for boys of high school age. He has coached boys' baseball and soccer teams and a girls' softball team, and has participated in basketball and softball programs in the Granite City park district.

He attended Granite City schools from the fifth grade through high school, graduating in 1957, and received a bachelor of arts degree in mathematics from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville in 1963.

Associated with IBM for 16 years,

Melton taught data processing for three years in the IBM St. Louis Education Center.

His work with IBM has included serving the Federal Reserve Bank of St. Louis. Before joining IBM, he was employed by McDonnell Douglas as a scientific computer programmer.

As a member of the Board of Education, he was on the policy committee for three years, the Title I advisory board for two years and the Quad-City special education board for one year, in addition to serving as an

Library funds in township budget

Granite City Township has budgeted $50,000 of its 1981-82 revenue sharing funds to help the Granite City Public Library Board construct a new branch library.

The proposed library branch will cost approximately $1.5 million. It would be built on about six acres of land, which already is owned by the library board. The property is located at the southern end of Wabash Avenue, between Johnson Road and St. Clair Avenue, between Pichard School and St. John's Lutheran Church.

Due to lack of federal funds, the library will not be built this year, although an architectural firm has drawn preliminary specifications.

The board hopes to obtain a grant to help defray building costs. Imposing a tax is another fund-raising option. "We don't want to raise taxes any more than we have to," Ron Coleman, former board president, stated. Coleman, now a board member, was the president until the selection of Joan Yetter.

"Construction will not start this year," Coleman said, noting more money still is needed before actual work can begin.

Mayor Paul Schuler said he is encouraging the township donate this money to the library board.

The suggested appropriation is subject to review and comment by the citizens during a public hearing on proposed uses for revenue sharing at 7 p.m. Tuesday, June 16, in the township hall, 2060 Delmar Ave.

It also will have to be approved when the tentative budget is acted on following a second public hearing on the township's budgets at 7 p.m. July 7, in the same location.

The $50,000 grant recommendation part of a tentative revenue sharing fund budget totaling $190,692. Other capital expenditures in the tentative budget include $2,000 for completion of funding for a storage room addition to the township hall ($40,000 was appropriated for the same purpose last year), and $8,000 for a new photocopy machine and insurance for its maintenance.

Another $34,000 is appropriated for Man killed by electrocution

Roger D. Short, 28, of 2601 Westmoreland Drive, was electrocuted while working in his home about 8:50 p.m. Tuesday.

Mr. Short's father-in-law, Charles Tinsley, 1619 Spruce St., said that Mr. Short was hooking up the central air conditioning in his new home and had gone into the crawl space of the house approximately two minutes before Tinsley arrived.

Tinsley said he went to check and found his son-in-law unconscious with an electrical wire touching his leg. Police and a Granite City ambulance were summoned and Tinsley administered cardio-pulmonary resuscitation (CPR) until ambulance paramedics arrived and relieved him.

CPR was continued until Mr. Short arrived at the emergency room of St. Elizabeth Medical Center where attempts to revive him were unsuccessful. He was pronounced dead at 9:30 p.m. Tuesday.

Paramedics noted that Mr. Short suffered a large area of severe burns to his left side, which was next to the electrical wire.

Additional details appear in today's obituary column.

A DIFFERENT DRUMMER. Movement and sound of Tuesday night's Shriner's parade in Granite City are vibrantly sensed in an upward look through the clear drum of Chuck Burk, a member of the Highland Senior High School Band. Thousands lined the parade route from 25th Street and Madison Avenue to Nameoki and Johnson roads. More than 70 units formed the annual parade which heralds the Ainal Shrine circus at the Tri-City Speedway tonight and Friday beginning at 7:30 p.m.

Seek labor charges against GC Journal

By GARY SCHNEIDER
of the Press-Record

Unfair labor practices charges are expected to be filed tomorrow or early next week by the St. Louis Newspaper Guild on behalf of three former management employees of the Granite City Journal who were fired Monday after an advertising salesman who was fired two weeks ago.

The charges will be filed with the National Labor Relations Board. The former employees allege their firings were the result of union-organizing activities at the Journal. The NLRB has set a date of June 25 for a union election at the Granite City Journal, which is not affiliated with the Press-Record.

Editor George Williams of Clayton, Mo., Sports Editor Mike Reilly of St. Louis and Advertising Manager David Wachter of Granite City were fired Monday by Rod Sanders, president and publisher of the Granite City Journal.

Feature Editor Cathy Cullen was "let go" Tuesday morning, with pay through June 17. She already had announced plans to begin working full-time for the St. Louis Globe Democrat Thursday, June 18, she told reporters.

Mike Hildebrand of Granite City, an advertising representative and one of the key organizers of the Guild at the Granite City Journal, was fired two weeks ago. He contends his firing was for union organizing activities. The company is alleging that he was fired for delivering subpoenas on company time for his brother, Associate Judge Thomas Hildebrand, other Journal employees said.

Hildebrand said he did deliver one subpoena on company time and that was for the Alton Citizen, another Donnelly paper. He contended that he asked Sanders for permission to deliver the subpoena and Sanders granted that permission.

The Guild is attempting to organize all of the Donnelly Publications newspapers in Missouri and Illinois to correct alleged low pay, poor working conditions, failure to pay overtime and other company policies.

One Granite City Journal employee said the combination of firings and the promotion of several union supporters into management positions, where they cannot vote in a union election, has diluted the support for the union. "We had 20 people ready to vote for the union. The way I figure it, Rod (Sanders) has it almost to a tie vote now and a tie loses. A tie goes to the company," the employee said.

Alice Curless-Gibson, the only full-time news reporter to survive the cuts, was named editor of the Granite City Journal yesterday morning, and Tom Janek, an advertising salesman, was promoted to advertising manager after Monday's firings. Neither will be able to vote in the union election, since they were named to management positions.

Ben Kuyath, publisher of the Highland American, another Donnelly Publications free paper, has been brought in as an advertising salesman and the Highland American office appears to have been closed, although there has been no official announcement of its closing, according to newspaper sources in Highland, who said Kuyath has not been working out of the American office there recently.

At least one other Highland American employee has been brought to the Granite City Journal to work, em-

Francis appointment debated

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record

This year's Madison County grand jury that convened Jan. 26 and reported May 14 said, "We recommend that Terry Francis not be reappointed to the Board of Review."

No reason was given by the grand jurors. Madison County State's Attorney Donald Weber contends Francis used bad judgment in allegedly discussing a legal client's assessments with fellow Board Review members.

Weber asserts that no law was violated but that the situation constituted a conflict of interest. Francis denies it.

Nelson Hagnauer, chairman of the Madison County Board, allowed Francis' second two-year review board appointment to lapse June 1 and said he would make an appointment at the June 17 County Board meeting.

However, there are few persons formally qualified for a position on the property assessment review panel, so an immediate decision may not be possible. A new qualifying examination is set for June 30.

State's Attorney Weber is opposing further service on the Board of Review by Francis, and also wants to see James Barton fired as supervisor of assessments and Board of Review clerk.

Hagnauer said that, before deciding on Francis or another appointee, he wanted to study a report by the Division of Criminal Investigation (DCI) of the Illinois Department of Law Enforcement.

Francis would like to be reappointed but concedes that he may not be, although he has received no official word.

Reports indicate Hagnauer may drop Francis, but Hagnauer has not said so. Francis, a former Granite City man who resides in Glen Carbon, is a lawyer and real estate broker.

Paul Riley of Edwardsville, attorney for Francis, says Francis' varied skills, knowledge and experience have helped the Board of Review reach its best operation in many years.

It was Francis who frequently explained taxation and assessment procedures to groups of property owners gathered to discuss their valuations with the Board of Review.

Board member's attendance record questioned

By VALERIE EVENEDEN
of the Press-Record

Since John Mangiaracino was elected to the Venice Board of Education on April 12, 1980, he has attended five meetings of the board and has been present at none of the twice-monthly sessions since Sept. 5, 1980.

The question of Mangiaracino's attendance at Venice School Board meetings was raised at Monday night's session by the Rev. John Henry Williams.

"As an interested citizen and taxpayer I would like to know whether it's true that an elected member of this board has not been attending any of the meetings," Rev. Williams said, referring to Mangiaracino.

"Is he sick? Is he dead, or has he moved out of town? I'd really like to know," the minister asked.

"That I understand, he has not been to a meeting for the past six, seven or eight months. So, what are you going to do about such dead weight?" Rev. Williams said to board members.

Venice Supt. of Schools Robert N. Vickers later confirmed that Mangiaracino last attended a board meeting on Sept. 5, 1980, and has been present at only four meetings prior to that date from the time he won a three-year term on the board in April 1980.

There have been 27 regular meetings of the Venice board since Mangiaracino's election. He is officially recorded as having attended only five.

The Press-Record was unable to reach Mangiaracino for comment Wednesday.

"What can you do about something such as this?" Rev. Williams inquired Monday night.

When no one could give him an answer, both Board President Jack Tolliver and Supt. Vickers suggested Board Attorney Michael Bilibrey look into the problem in an effort to clarify the board's position and what recourses may be available to voters.

It was noted that board members are elected by the people and apparently the board, itself, cannot take action because of poor attendance by its members.

Supt. Vickers said members of the board are notified of all meetings (regularly scheduled on the second and fourth Monday of each month), together with a copy of the meeting agenda, on the Friday prior to a board meeting.

The administrator or his secretary personally deliver the agenda to the homes of all board members at that time, Supt. Vickers advised.

The meeting dates and time also are published in the Grassroots Government section of the Press-Record.

The next Venice School Board election is scheduled in November 1981 when the terms of Board Members George Wade, Larry Boyd and Mrs. Alvester Salmond, who is serving the remainder of the unexpired three-year term of James E. Turner who resigned, will expire.

In other action, the board learned that two areas of Venice have been declared "hazardous" zones by the state, relating to children walking to school.

The state action will enable the

Oriental Band takes first at jamboree competition

The Oriental Band, a unit of Almad Shrine Temple of East St. Louis, participated in the annual Great Lakes Oriental Band Jamboree hosted by Murat Shrine Temple of Indianapolis, Ind., June 5, 6 and 7.

Fun and fellowship is very much in evidence during each annual affair, but competition on stage becomes fierce during the time of scrutiny and judging.

The local Oriental Band is flanked by a number of members from the Quad-City area, as well as surrounding communities, working with other Shriners toward aid to the crippled child.

At the jamboree, the band competed in the middle-size bands, and was awarded a first prize trophy. This is the first time the local unit ever achieved first place in the mid-size classification, and the enthusiasm was shared by many.

Glenn Bartling, formerly of Granite City, and now of St. Louis band director, and Howard Hampton of Fairview Heights is assistant director.

Elevated officers of the band attending the festivities are: Willis Price, president; Bethalto; Ray Isom, Granite City, vice president; Richard Stagg, treasurer, Granite City; and Frank Walsh, secretary, O'Fallon. Ray Isom of Granite City is also drum major.

Ainad Temple's 1981 Potentate, Don Adams of Granite City, delegated Jerry Adams of Granite City to represent Ainad Temple during the jamboree in Indianapolis.

The Oriental Band will be on review throughout the year as its members participate in many Shrine functions and parades among other activities.

Hebrews 2:3 "...How shall we escape, if we neglect so great salvation."

How strong in faith you can be if you concentrate your devotion on our great salvation. God knows what we have need of. He knows we are easily tempted. He knows sin abounds around us. He knows our struggles and our strifes day by day.

God also knows that if we continually dwell on our hardships and our problems, and not on Him, they will become mountains we can't move.

God is a mountain-mover. A problem solver. He is able to do exceeding great things for us, over and above all that we can ask or even think.

Do not neglect to meditate on our great salvation; Christ, our Saviour; healer and baptizer. Change your situation of defeat to victory by ending neglect.

Bitten boy needs no rabies shots

The 9-year-old Madison boy who was bitten by a dog last week will not have to complete a series of painful rabies shots. The dog, a German Shepherd, has been identified and it has been inoculated.

The boy was walking to the Madison Middle School last week, when he was bitten by a dog on McCasland Avenue. Madison Humane Officer Vasil Graville, the boy and his father searched the Madison area, walking from house to house, hoping to find the dog, without success.

Mrs. Pauline Sanders, 22 Briarcliff, saw the article in the Press-Record, urging anyone with information about the dog to call Graville. Since her dog had been stolen about two and a half months ago, and found on Sixth Street and McCasland Avenue, she thought it may have been the accused dog.

The boy identified Mrs. Sanders' dog as the one that bit him, and since it had been inoculated, he will not have to undergo the shots. "Two of my children have been bitten by dogs," Mrs. Sanders told the Press-Record. "I would hate to see the little boy go through that," she stated.

Graville is warning dog owners that if their pets are not leashed or in a fenced yard, they will be impounded. A city ordinance provides that no dog will be allowed to run at large in the city, and Graville said he will be strictly enforcing this law.

"In view of what has happened," Graville said, "Any dog not on a leash or in a fenced yard and the owner will be fined." He also noted that the incidents of dog bites may increase, as children are no longer in school.

State and city statutes require pet owners to have the animals inoculated. Failure to do so will result in fines and impoundment of the animal.

Thief gets cash, guns

Madison police are investigating the burglary of the residence of David Thebeau, 14314 Fourth St., Madison, above Ralph and Charlie's Steak House. Several personal handguns and an undetermined amount of money, believed to be over $1,000, were taken. Entry was gained by forcing a window. The upstairs bedroom was ransacked.

Hampton was released on $137 cash bail after being arrested in the 1800 block of Collinsville Avenue, Madison.

Labor charges

employees there confirm, and a new advertising saleswoman has been hired, said to be the fiancée of Sanders. She was hired just before the deadline, which makes her eligible to vote in the union election, the employees contend. Sanders said he had no comment on the issue or the firings yesterday, as did the new editor.

Reilly, who had been promoted to Madison County bureau chief for the Donnelly papers, before being demoted to Granite City Journal sports editor again, said yesterday that he has already begun appealing his firing. He submitted written accounts yesterday to the Guild's attorney. The accounts detail allegations of the company's activities against him and other Guild organizers and "the trumped up things we were fired for," Reilly said.

He said that after he was made county bureau chief, he was told that Sanders "burst into George's (Williams) office, said he wanted to hire someone for the company job (bureau chief) and said, 'I don't want it to be Reilly.' He (Sanders) said something like, 'After what he did, he'll never get that county job back.' I am sure he was talking about the union activities," Reilly said.

He was fired shortly after that, he added. Hildebrand said he has "held off" taking action against the company "to see how the election comes out," but has agreed to participate in the unfair labor practices case, in light of this week's firings.

Williams confirmed yesterday that the Guild does intend to file charges immediately against the Granite City Journal on behalf of himself, Reilly, Wachter and Hildebrand. Williams said he believes he was fired because he refused to fight against the union, maintaining instead a neutral position. He said Sanders called him into his office in early May and told him, "George, now is the time for all good men to come to the aid of the company."

Williams confirmed reports that the Journal had made several changes in mid-May, including telling reporters that their stories would not carry bylines with their names, that all employees would begin keeping time cards and that employees were not to enter the composing room in Altan.

"I guess they didn't want us to spread the contagion up there (in Altan)," he said, noting he was only allowed to help make up one paper in the composing room after that.

administration, $20,000 is earmarked for social services for the poor and aged, $64,786 is budgeted for compensating employees, $1,800 is to be used for painting and supplies and $10,000 is to be transferred to the town fund, according to the tentative document.

A balance at the end of the fiscal year, Feb. 28, 1982, of $2,086 is forecast. Other funds in the $977,243 budget package include $315,045 for the town fund, $223,506 for the general assistance fund and $68,000 for the municipal retirement fund.

The new budget package is $12,367 higher than the budgets for the previous fiscal year which totaled $784,876. In 1980-81, the town fund totaled $294,506, the general assistance fund was $241,369, the federal revenue sharing fund was $181,010 and the municipal retirement fund was finalized at $68,000.

Town fund appropriations for the 1981-82 fiscal year are tentatively set at $35,733 for township officers, $219,600 for town hall expenses, $3,100 for town officers' expenses, $10,812 for the township tax collector's expenses, $3,500 for auditing, $6,000 for legal fees, $2,700 for surty bonds for town officers, $6,000 for schools and seminars, $1,500 for contingencies and $265,000 for insurance. A balance at the end of the year of $19,321 is forecast.

General assistance appropriations in the tentative budgets include $126,000 for home relief for the poor and aged, $15,000 for their hospitalization, $1,000 for burials, $81,000 for administrative fees and $500 for contingencies.

The tentative municipal retirement fund for the township includes $58,000 for the township's share of employee retirement and repayment of $10,000 borrowed from other township funds.

Tavern association helps support youth

Members of the committee are Julie Goclan of Greenwood Tavern, Madison; Bill Summers of E & L Lounge, Beverly Fowler of Victor's Tavern and Mary Woodward from Caseyville.

President Hester also called for members that still had tickets or money from the annual dance to turn them in to Fred Painter or Hook Watson. Proceeds from the dance also help support the youth ranch.

The tavern association has 110 seats for the Wednesday, Sept. 9, Cubs vs. Cardinal baseball game. Seats are $17.50 each and members have until July 15 to purchase them. After July 15 the tickets will go on sale to the general public. Fred Painter is chairman of this event.

Hester noted that the National Tavern Owners Convention will be held in Las Vegas Nov. 8 to 12. Those wishing to attend may contact Hester before July 15 as only 20 seats on a chartered plane are left.

The association's annual night at Fairmount race track will be set in October. The next meeting of the Madison County Tavern Association will be July 5 at Dukes Club 60 in Madison.

Arrest man after Buxton disturbance

Joel W. Knight, 22, of 2333 Benton St., was charged with aggravated battery in a city complaint early Wednesday after he allegedly swung a baseball bat and a hammer at two persons.

Mike Knight, 3606 Kirkpatrick Homes, and his ex-wife, Carol Knight were at 2909 rear Buxton Ave., when Joel Knight allegedly became angry, shook a claw hammer at Mrs. Knight and threatened her. She took her children, ages 6, 9 and 10, to the bathroom and they escaped through the bathroom window.

Mike Knight then entered the house and alleged Joel swung the hammer at him. Mike jumped out of the house, over his motorcycle and alleged Joel came out of the house with a baseball bat and struck Mike's left wrist, breaking his watch and causing minor cuts to the wrist. Mike picked up a tree limb to defend himself and alleged that Joel broke the limb by hitting it with the bat. Mike's motorcycle then was struck twice with the bat, denting the gasoline tank, police were told. Officers arrived and alleged Joel attempted to punch Mike with a fist while police were talking to them. When Joel was told he was under arrest, he allegedly backed away from an officer until a second officer arrived and assisted in arresting him. He was taken to the Granite City police building and was lodged in jail.

Summer hours for school staff in GC district

Summer work hours have been adopted by the Granite City community unit school district as an energy conservation measure.

Hours will be 7 a.m. to 3:30 p.m. on weekdays from June 15 through Aug. 14. As of Aug. 17, the normal work hours of 8 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. will be resumed.

Some of the late afternoon heat will be avoided by the summer schedule, enabling less cooling to be provided at offices and schools.

The new hours will apply to all 12-month employees, including office secretaries and maintenance staffs at the various buildings and schools.

Authorization for the summer schedule was given by the Board of Education at its meeting Tuesday night. The new hours will not alter the previously announced hours for summer school. Such classes traditionally are completed in the late morning or early afternoon.

Deadline extended

The deadline for submitting applications for the Granite City Mayor's paint program has been extended for an additional two weeks. The new deadline is Friday, June 26. The original deadline was to be Friday, June 12.

The program is limited to cleaning, scraping and painting, with white paint only, of the homes of senior citizens and low income families who qualify.

GC man hit by car, loses leg

James Williams Jr., 53, of 3005 W. 20th St., lost part of his left leg when he attempted to cross Route 3 (old Route 151) at West 20th Street at 12:05 a.m. Wednesday.

Police said they had answered a disturbance call at Williams' nearby home about 11:45 p.m. Tuesday and warned Williams that he should not drive.

Police refused to help him find his car keys and they left the home. The accident occurred approximately 20 minutes later when Williams was walking east across Route 3 and was struck by the southbound car of John Epperson, 55, St. Charles, Mo.

Epperson said he was driving between 50 and 55 miles-per-hour into the darkened intersection and did not see the pedestrian in the roadway until it was too late to avoid striking him.

Epperson swerved his car to the left, but struck Williams and then the median before coming to a halt approximately 48 yards south of the point of impact.

Police noted that there are no street lights in the area and it is difficult for motorists to see pedestrians at night.

Williams' family ran to the scene and found him with his left leg severed at the knee. He was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where he was admitted to the intensive care unit in serious condition.

MOTORCYCLE STOLEN
The red 1980 Honda motorcycle of Shepard Conrad, 2610 W. 20th St., was stolen from in front of his home early Friday.

Melton returns

alternate member of the negotiating committee.

Melton believes that "providing education to our children is the most important governmental service performed by the community. I enjoyed being a part of it."

"Whoever sits on the Board of Education needs to represent and balance the best interests of the three major elements served—the children, the employees and the taxpayers."

"For children, we must provide the opportunity for a quality education. Our employees must be reasonably compensated so that they can provide for their families. Expenses must be held in check to minimize the burden on taxpayers."

"In all major decisions that I was involved with during my three years on the board, I tried to balance the needs of all three groups. It was a real pleasure and a great honor to have been a part of government of the people, by the people."

"I have no axe to grind, and I represent no special interest groups."

"I will work with the other board members and with employees of the system to face the difficult issues of declining enrollment and uncertain revenue sources."

"Our excellent school system has historically been responsive to the changing requirements of our community."

"I believe my work experience, my education and my role as family provider qualify me to contribute positively to the school system in an advisory and decision-making capacity."

"Having been an educator for three years, I can understand the needs of those teaching our children. My background, including designing business system solutions, aids me in analyzing programs and methods to make sure they are as effective as possible."

"As a husband and father, I understand the need to be careful with a dollar. I will do everything possible to treat everyone fairly, deal with the issues in reasonable and rational ways, make sure that every tax dollar is spent wisely, and protect and promote the general educational welfare."

Melton resided in the unincorporated area when he was elected to the School Board.

Although in most instances an unlimited number of rural residents may serve on the board, and no more than five city residents, the law required that an appointed successor to Saltich represent the same geographic area as he did—the City of Granite City.

With limited time to comply, the annexation of four Westmoreland properties was handled directly by aldermen without referral to the Plan Commission. Some council members were unaware that a potential School Board appointment was one of the factors in the annexation requests.

The final alderman vote on the multiple annexation proposal, initially considered in May, was 10 to four.

The chairman of the City Council planning and zoning committee told fellow aldermen June 2 that, in future annexations, the committee will seek to know at least three days in advance the names and addresses of persons asking to join the city.

Another council member asked that aldermen of the affected ward be informed of proposed annexations prior to council meetings.

Still another alderman urged referral of all annexations to the plan commission, assuring advance public notice of one or two weeks.

Melton said he at no time made a secret of his interest in returning to the Board of Education.

Commenting that he resented the speculation that arose over the annexation effort, he praised board members for their courage in voting the way their consciences guided them in filling the board vacancy.

The school district last month formally requested applications from all qualified residents who were interested in being named to the board.

The board decided to personally interview the applicants after noting that the total number was such that they could be accommodated. Ten minutes were allowed for each person interviewed.

The legal notice said each applicant "must be a citizen of the U. S., at least 18 years of age, a resident of the state and of the district for at least one year, a registered voter, and reside in the corporate limits of the city." Letters of interest, including resumes, were required by May 28.

Melton did not live within the city on May 28, and he will not have resided within his new voting precinct for a 30-day period until early July. (The annexation changed his property from Nameoki Township to Granite City Township.)

The board is believed to have concluded that these factors were technicalities which could be waived, and did so.

Although it turned out that Melton was the preference of a majority of the board, members maintained that they were keeping an open mind on the subject until they had an opportunity to confer directly with all applicants.

The interviews began at 7:05 p.m. and were completed within a period of an hour and a half. Administrators remained outside the room, but the press was present.

Since Saltich was the president of the board as well as a member, the board will need to choose a new president at its next meeting at 7:30 p.m. Tuesday, June 23. Monroe Worthen was named Tuesday night as acting president.

The eight who were interviewed were notified of the selection of Melton in telephone calls during the evening.

When called by telephone, Melton agreed to return to the board room and was officially seated as a board member at 9:10 p.m., responding to a roll call vote prior to the adjournment.

Board member's

Venice district to claim reimbursement for transporting pupils living within the city limits.

The areas declared hazardous, following a survey by state authorities, are located on South Fourth Street and on Main Street. Elimination of "in-town" school bus transportation has been at issue for the past two years, a proposal suggested due to the district's poor financial status.

About 100 students, mostly grade school pupils, have been transported by district-owned buses to school, although the children live within the "in-town" limits.

Supt. Vickers suggested the district investigate the acquisition of a newer bus to replace one of the older models.

He noted this action would allow one of the groups that frequently request use of school buses for transportation, an opportunity to purchase the older vehicle.

The board accepted with regret the resignation of Mrs. Elizabeth Maher, a cook, who has been with the district for 18 years and recently was on leave of absence due to disability.

In subsequent action, members authorized the hiring of Darlene Smith for the Venice public schools and Gladys McIntyre for Venice-Lincoln Technical Center. Both have been working as substitute cooks.

Also approved was use of a Venice-Lincoln Technical Center bus by Special Education Region I to transport pupils to the Illinois Special Olympics, scheduled June 19 through June 21, at Illinois State University at Normal. Expenses of the trip will be underwritten by Region I.

Larry R. Dew, Region I director, expressed appreciation to the Venice board for its cooperation in previous years with the Special Olympics program.

Mayor's Junefest is today and tomorrow

The Mayor's Junefest, which got off to a cloudy and wet start yesterday, is still in progress and all Quad-Cityans are being invited to attend the event. The festival features music, dancing and food.

Yesterday and today from 11:30 a.m. until 1 p.m., entertainment was provided by Stan Fornasewski's Musical Delights, Howard Bolten and Stagecoach will be featured Friday from 11:30 a.m. until 1 p.m.

Friday evening from 7 until 9, music performances will be given by The Liechtenstein German Band, weather permitting.

Civic Park, located at 20th Street and Niedringhaus Avenue, is the site of the spring music gala. Beverages, ham, cheese and roast beef sandwiches are available. Mayor Paul Schuler is issuing an invitation to all area residents to enjoy this festival.

Shrine parade on TV here

The Ainal Shrine circus parade in Granite City, June 9, will be shown on South-Western Cable Television channel 1.

An interview with Don Adams, Ainal Temple president, and Orville Hornert, parade marshal, will be part of the 30 minute video tape presentation.

The parade will be on the "Coffee Break with Greg McGee" program at 10:30 a.m. June 15, 17, and 19 and also at 6 p.m. June 17.

Elks observe Flag Day

The public is being invited to a brief Flag Day ceremony Sunday at 2 p.m. at the Granite City Elks Lodge, next to city hall.

Lt. Col. Chester Tutor, commander of the U.S. Army Troop Support and Aviation Material Command (Granite City Army Installation) will be a special speaker for the ceremony.

Speeches are to be kept short, organizers say.

The Boy Scout troop from St. Joseph's Church has agreed to conduct the presentation of the colors.

Energy workshop for teachers

The Economics of Energy, a two-week workshop for classroom teachers who can earn four hours of tuition-free graduate credit, is scheduled June 15-26 by Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

The workshop, sponsored by the SIUE Center for Economic Education under grants from Union Electric Co. and the Amoco Foundation, will help teachers develop curriculum materials for lessons on energy issues.

Ray Bernardi, center director, said the classes will cover a broad range of energy subjects from conservation and possible alternate fuels to government regulations and related economic concepts and technologies. The students will also visit a nuclear and a conventional power plant, a refining operation and a strip mine.

A group of professionals, all working representatives of local energy industries, government, academic research, and ecology groups, will lead individual sessions. An energy panel the final day will include Panos Kokoropoulos, associate professor of engineering at SIUE; Flo Messall, Phillips Petroleum of Bratisville, OK.; Roy St. Pierre, Wood River refinery manager for Shell Oil Co.; and a speaker from Missouri Energy Action, a public interest group.

The workshop meets at 8:30 a.m. until 12:30 p.m. daily at Union Savings and Loan Association in Collinsville. Registration is $10 under Business Education 505, but tuition is free.

For additional information or to complete preregistration, interested persons may contact Ray Bernardi, Center for

Refund for old Nameoki study

Nameoki Township officials learned Monday night the township will be reimbursed for the $23,000 it used to help pay for an engineering study in the early 1970s.

The $23,000 sum is Nameoki Township's share of funds used in 1970-72 study conducted by the engineering firm Sheppard, Morgan, and Schwaab. The firm was studying the then-proposed Madison County sewer project.

Venice and Choteau Townships were also involved in the study.

In a letter to the township board, The Madison County Auditors Office said the county would reimburse the township when the funds are released by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

In other business the board:

—Approved the hiring of Lester Kraft as township health officer. The board said Kraft will receive $250 per month plus expenses.

—Approved the lease of the township road sweeper to the highway department. The township will purchase a used Wayne sweeper for approximately $6,000. The highway department couldn't purchase the sweeper so it will lease it from the township for $1 per year.

—Authorized Township Supervisor Harry Briggs to have two of the township's phone numbers rerouted into the highway department's office.

Briggs said with the loss of their CETA worker in the office, it was overloading the workload of the remaining secretaries. The calls will be answered by the highway department secretary.

—Heard Briggs say he would contact Southwestern Illinois Metropolitan Area Planning Commission Director Theodore Miksell to discuss dues paid to SIMAPC by the township. Briggs said the dues have not yet been paid from the township since it's getting its money's worth.

Nolan quits park board

David J. Nolan, a Granite City Park District commissioner, submitted a letter of resignation of his board seat at the regular meeting of the board of commissioners Wednesday night. His resignation will be effective June 30.

Nolan, also administrative aide to Granite City Mayor Paul Schuler, was elected to a six-year term on the board in April 1979.

In his letter, Nolan, a lifelong resident of the city, cited his involvement in many community affairs and various duties in conjunction with his position and explained these commitments, plus being a member of the park board, were too time consuming.

Nolan recently became a father and cited this as another reason for his decision to step down from the board. He believes the extra time involved with the board and job-related commitments could possibly interfere with his family life.

A quorum was present at the meeting, but Board President George Sykes said that it would be inappropriate for just the five board members to take action on the letter as Nolan was one of the three present.

Nolan expressed his regret in stepping down from the board, but did praise the park district and its work and said that he believes it is one of the best park districts in the state.

Nolan said today he will resign from the board of the Unihav District, Boy Scouts of America, for which he was a member of the membership relations.

Thunderbirds fly Saturday

The Thunderbirds, the Air Force's precision flying demonstration team, will headline this year's Scott Air Force Base open house to be held from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. Saturday, June 13.

The six Thunderbird jets will fly at speeds of up to 700 mph, 30 feet above the ground. Since 1953, they have performed the ultimate in precision formation flying.

The team will start its ground show at 2:35 p.m. and will fly from 3 to 3:40 p.m. Saturday. The unit will arrive at Scott at 2 p.m. Friday.

Other attractions at Saturday's open house will include the Air Force honor guard marching team, 1:55-2:10 p.m.; a Scott Air Force Base security police team rappelling from helicopters, 12:40-12:55 p.m.; and F-4 Phantom jet fly-by at 1:55 p.m.; and the Air Force Academy Wings of Blue parachute demonstration at 2:10 p.m.

Illinois Secretary of State James Edgar will present a proclamation signed by Governor James Thompson to General Robert E. Huyser, declaring Sunday, June 14, as General Robert E. Huyser Day in Illinois. This ceremony will take place at 1:40 p.m. Saturday.

International students' picnic

The International Hospitality Program at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will sponsor its annual picnic for international families and foreign students at 2 p.m. Saturday, June 13.

Janet Keller, picnic chairman, said the event will take place at Edwardsville Township Park on Center Grove Road.

The picnic picnic will start at 5 p.m. Saturday, with guests providing their own food and cold beverages and the organization furnishing the tableware.

Any area family interested in hosting a foreign student attending SIUE is invited to call 1-887-4504 for information.

TRESPASS CHARGED

Earl L. Dowdy, 22, who said he has no permanent address, was arrested inside a car at the home of Brent Feeney, 2257 Benton St., at 2:30 a.m. Tuesday. Feeney said Dowdy did not have permission to be in the car. Police searched him and alleged finding five marijuana cigarette butts and loose marijuana in one of his pockets and "roach clips," used for smoking marijuana in a packet in another pocket.

Summer youth job openings

Applications will be taken Friday, June 12, from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. for summer youth jobs, it was announced today by the Madison County Office of Manpower Development.

Applications are to be submitted at the Granite City Township office, 2060 Delmar Ave.

To be eligible for summer youth employment, applicants must be in the 14-19 age range and must be economically disadvantaged.

The jobs that are available will be offered to Quad-City area residents. They pay the minimum wage of $3.35 an hour and the number of hours varies.

After tomorrow, applications will be accepted at the local Job Service office in the American Village Shopping Center on Fehling Road.

Those with questions may contact the Job Service office at 451-5756.

The general membership of the Lions Club of Pontoon Beach approved $8,150 in monies for year-end donations at a meeting held at the Lions Den II last week. The donations were recommended to the club's board of directors by the finance committee last month. The board of directors approved and endorsed the year-end projects to the general membership for final approval.

Lion Bobby J. Durbin, chairman of the club's finance committee, said that most of the donation gifts will be presented to local community agency representatives during the club's 5th Annual Installation of Officers and Community Awards Dinner to be held at the Lions Den II on Monday, June 29.

Those agencies receiving funds that night will be: Pontoon Beach Police Department, $1,600 for eight bullet-proof protective vests; Long Lake Volunteer Fire Department, $1,400 for one portable emergency water pump; United Way's Pontoon Beach Co-Ordinated Youth Community Service Center, $1,000 for general assistance for clients; Nameoki Township Senior Citizens' Fund, $1,900 for field trips and tours; People of Pontoon Beach, $1,500 for three 8'x12' "Welcome to Pontoon Beach" highway signs.

Tri-Cities of American Red Cross, $500 for emergency relief fund; Cahokia Mounds Council Boy Scouts of America, $350 for youth projects; Tri-Cities Area YMCA, $300 for summer youth programs; Hospice of Madison County, $250 for aid to terminally ill patients.

Also approved donations requests were, $100 for the "Parents and Friends of the Specialized Living Center" for handicapped and crippled children, $125 for Quad-Cities Special Olympics Committee, Region I and $25 for the Quad-City Unit of the American Cancer Society. Following the dinner and business session, the Lions inducted two new members. Those inducted were George Gavlick, 1 Westgate Drive, sponsored by Lion Jerry Henderson and Gene Smallman, 3725 Fair Oaks Drive, sponsored by Lion President David Schermer. Illinois Lions I-G Immediate Past District Governor Ralph Johnson, of the Franklin Lions Club, performed the official new members induction. Zone Chairman Clay Breihan, of the Edwardsville Lions Club, presented New Member Campaign Drive award pins to Lions Schermer, Henderson, Bob Cavar, Jim Wells, Bob Lipscomb, and Frank Cramer. The Lions were presented the award pins for sponsoring new members during the months of October through March.

Don McBride, of the Illinois Department of Rehabilitation, and a member of the Edwardsville Lions Club, was the program speaker for the evening. McBride, blind since age 12, talked on his duties as a rehabilitation counselor for those who find themselves suddenly stricken with blindness through medical disorders or accident.

Cancer group to sponsor bike-a-thon

Final plans were made Thursday evening by the local American Cancer Society board for the annual Bike-A-Thon to be held Sunday, June 21. The funds received will be used to finance the programs of the American Cancer Society. The Bike-A-Thon will be held at the Granite City Army Depot. Registration will start at 12 Noon with riding commencing at 1 p.m. and ending at 5 p.m. Cold drinks will be served. Riders will ride a five mile course for as long as they wish or until 5 p.m. Traffic will be controlled.

The Bike-A-Thon is open to all riders. Based on total contributions turned in by the rider, prizes will be given. First prize is a new 10 speed bike, second prize is a portable radio and third prize is a savings bond.

Teachers union awards three scholarships

The Granite City Federation of Teachers, Local 743, AFL-CIO, has awarded scholarships for the school year 1981-82 to: Tracie Keller, daughter of Carolyn Ready, 2126 Miracle Ave., and Charles Keller of Wood River, who plans to study chemical engineering at the University of Missouri at Rolla, and Orville Angle, son of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Angle Sr., 2107 Bryan Ave., who plans to study elementary or business education at South-West Baptist University.

Two-year prison term for forgery

Roland A. Gordon, 45, East St. Louis, has been sentenced to two years in prison by Associate Judge Edward Ferguson.

Gordon was charged with forgery in Granite City. The offense occurred Feb. 12.

The teachers' union scholarship committee was co-chaired by Andy Yurko and Helen Velloff with members Bob Burns, Shirley Stroud, Carol Moore, Bill Watson, Don Riden, Pat Moore and Al Lobdell. Previous scholarship recipients who have submitted transcripts, are in good standing and have indicated a desire to continue their education. They will have their scholarships renewed.

MAN IS RUN OVER

James Anderson, 30, of Bluford, Ill., near Mount Vernon, was rushed by ambulance from that area to St. Elizabeth Medical Center Saturday after he was run over by a van and was seriously injured. He was admitted to the intensive care unit here. Anderson suffered severe cuts to the left side of his face and his left eyeball was punctured in the accident, authorities said.

Fraternal week observed

by DONNA KIMBRO
of the Press-Record
Fraternalists across North America observe June 8 to 14 each year as the time of attention is drawn to the fraternal benefit system and this year a flag raising ceremony will be held on Sunday, June 14, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

Bert Waltenberger, president of the Granite City District 491 of The Greater Beneficial Union, and Jim Reagan, secretary of the local organization, will attend the event in Pittsburgh. All officers from the area are expected to attend the Pennsylvania session to represent 900 people in the Quad-Cities, the president explained.

The Granite City fraternal benefit society holds meetings on the fourth Friday of each month at 8 p.m. at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

Another meeting of interest is the Missouri State Congress annual session scheduled for Oct. 9-10 to convene at the Holiday Inn in Eureka, Mo. The session is expected to attract members and delegates of 31 societies representing 20,000 people, according to Waltenberger.

Fraternal week 1981 will be observed in various ways with many governors signing proclamations giving official recognition to the seven-day period in their states.

According to Arley R. Bjella, president of the National Fraternal Congress of America, an important strength of America lies in contributions of fraternal benefit societies for their members and others.

He added, "The most recent year of record (1979) there were more than 26 million hours of volunteer service given by members of fraternal benefit societies. These societies are organizations which are established solely for the benefit of their members and beneficiaries through the provision of insurance and other benefits, have a representative form of government, are not-for-profit and have a system of local service units. Currently there are over 47,000 local units of fraternal benefit societies, Bjella said.

Headquarters of the National Fraternal Congress of America is located at 230 West Monroe St., Chicago. The Greater Beneficial Union of Pittsburgh, GBU, was established in 1892 and has observed a tradition of providing life insurance and other projects for its applicants.

A GBU district is a group of members who get together for community, social, educational and patriotic involvement.

Other than life insurance fraternal benefits as authorized by the Board of Directors of the GBU includes a scholarship fund founded in 1962 that gives financial assistance to qualified members interested in college education. Also orphan benefit, a protection for children under the age of 18 in the event both parents die.

Special Olympics was adopted by GBU as its national project and is designed to assist financial with the sporting program for mentally retarded participants.

Sharing Funds is another aspect of the GBU and is defined as a community relation program to support a local (or District) cultural group. Some of the common activities which are sponsored with this fund is Little League teams, soccer teams, bowling teams or participation in a civic parade or patriotic observance.

A monthly publication known as the GBU Reporter is sent free to every member family and features articles of particular interest to the members.

Each month members of GBU gather for fellowship and meetings of their local district to promote projects, community involvement, youth activities, social and educational affairs, all a part of district fraternal activities.

Other selected programs under the auspices of GBU are the Special Events and Projects and Disaster Relief plans.

The Special Events and Projects plan offers members poster, essay, art and photo competition as well as discount tickets for various sporting events. Each district sets its own program relative to the respective community and interests.

Disaster Relief is formulated to give financial relief on an individual basis in time of a disaster in the area of its members.

History professor '81 great teacher'

Patrick Riddleberger, history professor at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville, has been selected by SIUE alumni to receive this year's Great Teacher Award.

Established 12 years ago to recognize excellence in classroom teaching, the award is given to the instructor SIUE graduates feel had the most influence on them while they were undergraduates. It includes a $1,000 gift, financed by contributions from alumni, and an inscribed plaque.

A native of Virginia, Riddleberger came to the local campus in 1960 from the University of Maryland, where he had been teaching history since 1953. His specialty is mid-19th-century American history, with emphasis on the reconstruction period.

The professor will receive the award at tomorrow's commencement exercises.

Exam for service on review board

An examination will be conducted by the Illinois Department of Revenue in the Madison County Board room of the Courthouse in Edwardsville at 10 a.m. June 30 for persons wishing to qualify for appointment as a member of the Madison County Board of Review.

Two members represent the majority party from the last county election, the Democrats, and one member represents the party polling second highest vote, the Republicans. There is one Democrat position open.

To be eligible for appointment, a person must be qualified by virtue of experience and training in the field of property appraisal and property tax administration.

He or she must pass the examination prepared and administered by the Department of Revenue to determine his or her competency to hold the office, and must be a resident of Madison County.

"Application blanks and more information can be obtained at my office in the Courthouse," County Clerk Evelyn M. Bowles said Tuesday.

Arrest after disturbance

Bryan K. Mainer, 18, of 2449 St. Clair Ave., was arrested last week following a disturbance at his home, involving family members and police officers, and later in the emergency room at St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Three officers went to the home in response to a call from the family and found Mainer allegedly combative and abusive being restrained by a brother on the dining room floor. He reportedly kicked his brother and father after police arrived.

The family said Mainer had been involved in a car accident on Highway 162 and asked officers to take him to the hospital.

Enroute to the hospital, Mainer allegedly made obscene remarks to one officer and upon arriving in the emergency room again became combative and kicked a medical orderly in the leg, broke a thermometer in his mouth, spit on an officer and had to be restrained and then forcibly removed from the hospital. Mainer was charged with criminal damage to property, battery and resisting arrest.

Sentenced to 3 years in prison

Circuit Judge A. A. Matosian has ordered a three-year state prison term for Larry Mouser, 21, of 2807 Emzee St., Granite City. Mouser was sentenced this spring for a burglary occurring in Granite City on Feb. 28.

Francis appointment

He also authored a booklet outlining how the tax process functions and how the six types of assessment exemptions can be obtained.

He has denied any conflict of interest involving a furniture company. His attorney says Francis was not on a retainer from the company when the review board deliberated regarding that firm, nor did Francis participate in such review board decision-making, other than offering to provide factual information if requested.

Barton told the DCI that "Fredman Brothers have several properties in Collinsville, Granite City and Edwardsville townships."

"The furniture store in Collinsville is an old, outdated building. It is being used as the showroom for their furniture."

"If the building became vacant, that building would be valueless and cause the downtown area of Collinsville to lose more of its value. Barton did not believe that Fredman Brothers could sell that building for $100,000 if it were vacant."

In reference to the Gateway Apartments owned by Fredman Brothers, Barton advised that the apartments were in a state of needing repair. Barton believed that Fredman Brothers had an outside appraisal and that should have been in the court records.

In reference to the Fredman Brothers downtown properties in Granite City, and the other building in Collinsville, they are just according to Barton—all old buildings in need of repair.

"And if Fredman Brothers were to move their furnishings out of them, that the buildings would just cause the downtown areas in both Granite City and Collinsville to deteriorate more the buildings, vacant, would be valueless."

"The Eljem Corporation is owned by Francis. Barton advised that this property is located in downtown Granite City. However, he is not familiar with the property."

"According to Barton, the multiplier on Granite City Township brought this property up higher than it should be. He felt that the (revised) assessment on the property is adequate. The reporting agents asked Barton if he felt there could be or would be a conflict of interest with board member Francis and properties which he owned which were reduced, and properties which he acted as the legal representative for.

"They are having problems with individuals passing tests that are given to each member; also, with individuals willing to give up their time for a job that pays $45 a day and mileage. (The interview took place Oct. 31, 1979; the review board pay has since risen to $65 a day.)"

"Most people—real estate agents, lawyers—can do better at their own job than take time out to work on the Board of Review."

"So, therefore, Barton did not feel there would actually be a conflict of interest with Francis and the properties he owned. The properties that he is the legal adviser for."

Barton told the Press-Record in May 1981 that Francis left Board of Review meetings when the board was deciding on Francis-related properties.

The DCI has said that proposed values on Fredman Brothers property at 1299-65 N. Dearborn Ave., Granite City, were set at $21,500 and reduced to $17,500 for the 1974 tax year; $21,500 cut to $15,000 for 1975; $23,220 reduced to $12,250 for 1976; and $22,880 cut to $10,630 for 1977.

Granite City taxes paid for 1974-77 are listed as $1,162, $1,006, $792 and $728. Granite City Assessor Von De Cruse said in regard to this property that "the assessed valuation was extremely low. He stated this property on the open market (interviewed May 22, 1979) is worth about $100,000." The state's assessment ideal is one-third of fair cash market value; Cruse indicated by his comment that he would favor a $33,333 assessment.

Collinsville Assessor Peter Poletti said in a letter to the Press-Record, among other topics Fredman Brothers Furniture, 1375 Vandalia St., Collinsville.

"A certificate of error was issued by the Board of Review Aug. 8, 1978, reducing this property assessment from $223,750 (proposed) to $112,000.

"The reason given was a mistake in computation. According to Poletti, the valuation of $223,750 is a fair assessment (indicating total value of about $670,000)."

"The property consists of two buildings housing approximately 98 apartments. Poletti compared these apartments with others in Collinsville of similar type and considered the assessment to be fair."

"Poletti can see no reason for the assessment to be cut to $112,000. Certificates of error for the tax year 1974 were found which reduced the property from $231,400 to $120,000. In 1975, a certificate reduced the property from $251,400 to $120,000."

"Again, for the 1976 tax year, a certificate was issued by the Board of Review which reduced the valuation of $251,400 down to $121,400."

Fredman Brothers Furniture Co., Morrison Avenue, Collinsville, was discussed next.

"A certificate was issued Aug. 9, 1978, reducing this from $12,990 to $7,600. The reason shown is 'mistake' in computation."

"According to Poletti, this house is used to store furniture. It also contains from two to four apartments that are rented out."

"In Poletti's opinion, the assessment of $12,990 was a fair assessment in line with the other houses in that neighborhood; $7,600 is way low for that property."

At Fredman Brothers, 124-8 E. Main St., Collinsville, a "certificate" was issued Aug. 9, 1978, for the 1977 tax year reducing this property from $38,580 to an assessment of $18,100.

"According to Poletti, the assessment was a little high; however, $18,100 is low, but also more in line with the other buildings in downtown Collinsville. The building, according to Poletti, should sell in the area of $70,000."

"There were also certificates of error issued in 1978 reducing it from $41,100 to $16,100. At present, the building is used just as storage and a partial showroom."

Regarding Fredman Brothers, 125-7 E. Main St., Collinsville, a certificate Aug. 9, 1978, reduced the assessment from $25,810 to $12,500, based on "a mistake in computation."

"According to Poletti, the building presently is used as a showroom on all three floors for Home Furniture, owned by Fredman Brothers."

"It should sell for in the area of $70,000 and $25,810 (as one third of value) was more in line with the location and the other buildings on Main Street, $12,500 is very low."

"He can see no reason why it should be assessed that low. For the tax year 1976, a certificate was issued reducing the property from $28,600 to $14,000, the reason on that certificate was also a mistake in computation."

Interviewed Oct. 30, 1979, Francis was asked "if he had ever represented the taxpayers for a tax reduction in the capacity of a private lawyer while he was a member of the Board of Review."

"Francis first advised that he had not. He was then advised that Herbert Fredman of Fredman Brothers, Inc., had advised the reporting agents that Francis was related by his company to represent Fredman Brothers in property tax matters and that, in fact, the properties had been reduced for several tax years by certificates."

"He was further advised that his name did not appear on any certificates of error, but that he was a member of the Board of Review for the tax years 1976 and 1977."

"He stated that he would not have signed the certificates in this matter, but that he could have answered questions for other board members if they needed more information."

"Francis stated that he had represented other client for tax matters while being on the board. He refused to name the client, but stated to the reporting agents that if they named his client he would discuss the matter."

"Asked if he had ever obtained certificates on his own properties while a member of the Board of Review, Eljem Corp., Francis stated he had obtained certificates for some of his properties that he felt were overassessed. He stated that he owned properties throughout Madison County and never had a property reduced unless he felt the reduction was justified."

Thirty-two pages of DCI documentation relate to Fredman Brothers assessments.

"Herbert Fredman, the company's lawyer and part owner, advised (July 27, 1979) that he has been personally involved in the property taxes for the above properties the last one or two years."

"According to Fredman, prior to his involvement tax bills were sent to the individual properties and then the bills would go to Dave Fredman, president."

"Dave Fredman would take the tax bills to Francis, who is on a yearly retainer by the company, and Francis would get the reductions. Francis advises on properties and other legal matters for the company. (As noted, Riley, attorney for Francis, says Francis was not on a Fredman retainer while serving on the Board of Review.)"

"Herbert Fredman advised that they had been getting the reductions by certificates in Madison County and thought that was the proper procedure."

"Other properties they have throughout the state, they go through the Board of Review. Herbert Fredman believes all of his properties are overassessed; however, he has never had them appraised."

State's Attorney Weber is saying publicly and repeatedly that a grand jury's failure to find a law violation does not constitute "clearing" of an individual.

Insufficient evidence to indict does not mean an absence of improper actions, the prosecutor asserts.

Weber says that certificates of error should be used only to correct a mathematical or factual error. They cannot be utilized to change an assessment due to differing opinion over the value of property, even if there is evident unfairness in an assessment, he adds.

The Board of Review is empowered to hear valuation complaints from property owners, and to change an assessment when it believes an error has been made. This normally takes place at a hearing, scheduled after the owner objects to his assessment within 30 days of its publication.

Certificates of error were used often during the 1970s in situations where the 30-day filing period had elapsed.

Weber says Barton "should be fired, based on his handling of the certificates of error. He is the supervisor and is paid $25,000 a year. He should have known better."

Weber comments that he believes grand jurors felt Francis had represented a law client who came before the Board of Review for an assessment review. He said information may have been provided by Francis about Fredman Brothers property.

The state's attorney says that, in his opinion, Francis should have refused to participate in any way, including providing information.

Riley counters that the DCI report does not accurately relate the facts. He said that since Francis was not on a retainer while a board member, there was no conflict.

He also asserts that Francis never "represented" anyone before the Board of Review while he was a member.

Riley believes "semantics" and confusion are the roots of the supposed conflict.

Francis was never asked by state agents whether he was a financial retainer from Fredman Brothers while on the board. Riley notes, even though Francis was interviewed more than three months after Fredman was interviewed.

Man shot, two face charges

Maurice "Grease" Wells, 623 Ravenna St., Apt. A, Venice, is listed in serious condition at a St. Louis hospital, suffering from gunshot wounds to his head, neck and back.

The shooting took place at 9:25 p.m. Tuesday, on Market Street, between Washington Street and Ewing Avenue.

Two suspects have been taken into custody and are being held in the Madison City jail pending the posting of $175,000 bond each.

George Henry Howell, 24, and Mattie L. Tucker, 24, both of 126 Lee Wright Homes, Venice, have been charged with attempted murder, armed violence and reckless conduct. Venice police took Miss Tucker into custody at 9:36 a.m. Wednesday and Howell was picked up by Venice police at 12:05 p.m. Wednesday.

Wells was in his auto and the bullets went through the rear window before striking Wells.

Madison Detective Paul Bargiel said they are not sure yet as to the caliber of the weapon other than it had to be a large caliber hand gun.

Bargiel also had high praise for assistance given by the Venice police. The two suspects will be transferred to the Madison County jail.

June 30 deadline for truck, trailer plates

Secretary of State Jim Edgar has asked truck and trailer owners to act now if they plan to apply for their fiscal 1982 Illinois license plates by mail.

"It's not too late to apply by mail, but don't wait too long," Edgar said. "The June 30 deadline is approaching and there is considerable time involved in processing and mailing plates."

Edgar said the deadline will not be extended. "Since passenger car owners cannot have their sticker expiration dates extended because of the staggered system, it wouldn't be fair to give truck and trailer owners extra time," Edgar explained.

"Extending the deadline also would increase costs in our office, and we would lose interest from truck revenues which would go into the state treasury," he said.

The new black on green plates must be purchased for all second division vehicles, including trucks, tractors, trailers, semi-trailers and farm trucks and trailers.

Mileage tax stickers, and trailers will carry red on white plates.

Plates are available over the counter at four State Motor Vehicle stations in Chicago and the Centennial Building and Dirksen Parkway drive-in windows in Springfield.

Mileage tax and farm plates may be purchased in the Centennial Building only.

Pickup truck and trailer plates may be purchased at many financial institutions in Illinois, including banks, savings and loan associations and currency exchanges. Effective Wednesday, July 1, anyone driving a truck or trailer (or any other second division vehicle) licensed on a fiscal year basis with an expired fiscal 1981 plates, may be stopped, ticketed, and fined for improper registration.

STATE BALANCE UP BUT CASH LEVEL LOW

Balances in the state's day-to-day working funds improved slightly in May with an available balance in the general funds May 31 of $202 million.

Illinois Comptroller Roland W. Burris said the end-of-May balance was $68 million higher than the previous month, April, but still $158 million less than the balance last June 30, when the state ended the previous fiscal year.

Epidemic of social diseases continuing

By MARY RICHARDS
Illinois Department of Public Health

Veneral disease has always been considered a topic which nice people don't discuss. But we can no longer afford to "sweep it under the rug" or pretend it doesn't exist.

Veneral diseases reached epidemic proportions some time ago — and remain there.

Most people don't know that syphilis and gonorrhea are not the only forms of veneral disease. There are several — and one that is especially virulent is genital herpes.

Herpes is a common term for two viral infections. The rather imposing title "Herpes Simplex Virus Type One Infection" is the medical term for common "cold sores" or "fever blisters."

Herpes Simplex Virus Type Two is the medical term for genital herpes — a condition which produces painful sores on or around the sex organs. Genital herpes is spread from person to person through sexual relations.

Genital herpes is caused by a virus, and like nearly all viruses, it cannot be killed by any currently known antibiotic, so the symptoms may recur throughout life.

Typically, the first symptoms may be minor rashes or itching in the genital area. These may appear anywhere from two to 20 days after infection.

The symptoms then commonly develop into one or more, or a cluster, of painful blister-like lesions or sores. These sores are often accompanied by swollen lymph glands, fever, aching muscles and a general "sickly" feeling.

The sores dry up and disappear, as do the other symptoms, within a week to one month. But this seemingly spontaneous cure is no cure at all, for genital herpes cannot be cured. The virus remains in the body and can serve as the source of dangerous complications.

Because the blisters are breaks in the skin, there is the possibility that other germs may enter and cause another infection. If the patient is pregnant, the virus can be devastating, and even fatal, if transmitted to the infant.

Also, medical scientists now suspect the possibility of a link between genital herpes in women and cervical cancer.

If persons think they might have genital herpes, they should get medical attention at once, while the symptoms are still evident. Seeking medical attention immediately is essential to preventing serious and permanent complications.

It is important to follow the doctor's orders. One of the doctor's instructions would be to tell the patient's sexual partners.

Everyone involved must be notified quickly and receive treatment to prevent complications and keep the disease from spreading.

All veneral disease clinics in Illinois have public health workers who will help infected persons get medical help for their partners.

If a person who is treated for a sexually transmitted disease does not feel comfortable in telling his or her partner, the public health worker will do so without mentioning the name of the infected person. This protection is guaranteed by state law.

For the clinic nearest you, call our toll-free number — 800 252-8668. This article was prepared by the Illinois Department of Public Health, Division of Disease Control, 535 W. Jefferson, Springfield, Ill. 62761.

Tree falls on garbage truck

Kevin Hayes, 21, of 1428 Norwood Drive, driver of a Milam East garbage truck, was injured when the top of the truck was driving brushed a large tree in front of the home of John Kudelka Sr., 2025 Lindell Blvd., and the tree fell, smashing the cab of the truck at 11:35 a.m. Monday.

Police were told the tree had previously been struck by a tractor trailer and was damaged by April and May storms.

Hayes was taken to St. Elizabeth Medical Center, where he was treated for a head wound and was released.

STEAL TAPE PLAYER

A $100 cassette tape player was stolen from the home of James Margrab, 1327 Rhodes St., between 8 a.m. and 5:30 p.m. Monday. Entry was gained by breaking the glass in a door.

Gardens affected by damp weather

Area Garden Adviser

Spring 1981 has seen gardens grow in both dry and wet conditions.

When excesses such as the cool and wet weather of May and early June occur, some abnormal situations will develop. These include rotting potato plants, poor tomato growth, splitting cabbage heads and many others.

The rotting of potato plants can be called stem rot or black rot. When it appears, it is too late to do anything about control.

It is caused by fungus organisms that thrive in the moist conditions. Pull out infected plants and plant in new ground next year.

Poor growth by tomato plants is generally due to the cool weather and low number of hours of sunlight.

If adequate nutrients are available, plants will gain normal color and growth as the season progresses. Wait until the soil warms before applying mulches.

Split cabbage heads occur when excess water is present in the roots of mature cabbage. This condition may be prevented by cutting some of the plant roots after the cabbage reaches maturity.

Many of the "greens" have been infected with downy mildew. Again, this is a disease that thrives on cool, damp weather. Good aeration and adequate plant spacing provide the best control for preventing problems from this disease.

The cool, wet weather has been favorable for the cool season crops if diseases were not troublesome. This is the type of weather in which peas, lettuce, potatoes, and cole crops do best.

Now, as it warms up, it is time to make sure that the warm season crops are in the ground and ready to bear their designated crop.

Bids to be called soon for new Madison store

Construction bids for the Farm Fresh and Reese's Drug Store building will be sought in advertisements in about two weeks, it was decided at the Madison City Council meeting Tuesday night. The stores are to be the first new stores in a proposed shopping center in Madison.

At a meeting with Mayor Mike Sasyk and City Comptroller Al Hudzik last week, store officials agreed to have floor plans for the buildings drawn. After the specifications are complete, the architect for the building will be able to advertise for bids. The building is to be constructed as Third Street and Madison Avenue.

Hudzik told council members that specifications should be complete in about two weeks. The hanging of the cable television lines will take some "make ready work," aldermen were informed at the meeting. Cable lines will share the power and telephone lines, and cooperation from the utility companies is needed.

Sasyk, Hudzik and Mike Masek, coordinator for the cable TV project, will seek an agreement with Illinois Power Co. and Illinois Bell, so necessary arrangements may be made. The hanging of the cables will cost an estimated $15,000 to $20,000.

Alderman Don Reeves told the council that $1,805 is needed to purchase items for ambulances in Madison. This equipment includes an electric blood pressure gauge, a stretcher and a leg splint. Council members agreed to purchase these items, on the recommendation of Reeves.

File burglary charge

Gary W. Adams, 18, of 3909 Kirkpatrick Homes, was charged with a felony count of burglary in informational documents issued by the Madison County state's attorney's office Monday after Adams was arrested allegedly at the scene of a burglary of the home of Ray Gean, 2818 E. 25th St., at 1:43 a.m. Saturday.

Police were told by Gean's daughter that she had looked in through a kitchen window and saw someone in the house looking through a wall.

She went to a neighbor's house and called police, who surrounded Gean's home. When one officer knocked on the front door, the youth inside allegedly fled through a rear door and was arrested outside.

Adams appeared before Associate Judge Clayton Williams at 3:15 p.m. Monday in the Granite City hall and the judge set his bond at $2,500, and ordered him transferred to the Madison County Jail at Edwardsville in lieu of bond.

Committeewoman in visit here

The Madison County Young Republican Organization was visited by Aleesa Bell, national committeewoman, from Macomb County, and Robert Hall, upstate vice chairman from Cook County. Both were candidates for chairman of the Young Republican Organization of Illinois.

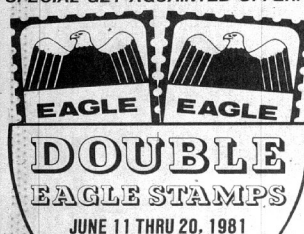

A leadership action workshop, held in Evanston, Ill., was attended by club members Mike Pate, Elizabeth Dickman, and Dottie Cummings of Edwardsville. This was also the site for the state primary for the Illinois Young Republicans. The Madison County group gave its vote and support to Aleesa Bell, who won the primary.

Anyone 18-35 years of age interested in being part of the Young Republican Organization may contact the Madison County president, Dottie Cummings at 286-7604. Thursday, June 11, at 7:30 p.m. will be the next meeting at 11 Oakdale Lake, Edwardsville.

CLEVELAND BURGLARY
About $15 in cash and $200 worth of food stamps were stolen from the upstairs apartment of Larry Switzer, 1710 Cleveland Blvd., early this week. A rear door was forced open to gain entry.

Support for plan to rebuild coke ovens

There were no objectors present at a public hearing last week on a plan by Granite City Steel to rebuild its "B" battery coke ovens, even though it will necessitate some increased air pollution during the construction.

The Illinois Pollution Control Board (IPCB) conducted the hearing, which was attended by representatives of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency (IEPA), Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce, St. Louis Regional Commerce and Growth Association (RCGA) and Paula Case, head of the Granite City Air Pollution Control Department.

Since there were no objectors among those at the public hearing, the IPCC is expected to grant permission in about two weeks for the work and construction, involving from 150 to 350 workers at various times, can begin immediately. The rebuilt ovens will provide approximately 41 full-time jobs, eventually, it was explained.

During the reconstruction of "B" battery, it will be necessary to shut down or move some of the air pollution control devices on the "A" coke oven, so there are likely to be brief periods of excess emissions, those present were told.

The hearing was the second and final hearing on the project. The first hearing was on whether or not a construction permit should be issued and Thursday's hearing was on a variance request to allow the excess emissions at times during the construction, it was explained.

Arrest 5 at Quality Sand

Five persons were arrested Sunday on charges of trespassing (swimming) on Quality Sand property, 4439 Highway 182.

At 2:32 p.m. Sunday, two juvenile boys were arrested. The youths were released to appear in court when notified.

At 4:08 p.m. Sunday, Pontoon Beach police arrested at the same location Tammy L. Wilson, 22, and Steve C. Wilson, 22, both of Rural Route One, Box 455, and a Nelson Brian Olmstead, 21, of Collinsville. They were also released on notice to appear in court when notified.

$160 THEFT LOSS
$70 worth of meat and $50 worth of food stamps were stolen during a burglary at the home of Regina Alden, 2726 Nameoki Drive, it was discovered early this week. A window in a door was broken to gain entry.

Keys in car tempt thief

West Granite motorists are being warned not to leave their keys in their vehicles, since one or more boys have been seen looking into vehicles for keys recently and are suspected of being involved in one vehicle theft and at least one theft of keys from a vehicle.

The station wagon of Richard Bays, 2925 W. 20th St., was stolen from his home before 9:30 a.m. Sunday and was found abandoned at Maple Street and St. Louis Avenue. Bays said he had left the keys in the glove compartment. They were in the ignition when the vehicle was recovered.

A witness said he saw a local youth driving the auto at Denver Street and Leyden Avenue shortly before it was recovered.

Police also are investigating the theft of keys from another vehicle and other incidents which may be related, according to official reports.

Mrs. Beckett currently resides in Edwardsville with her husband Jim, and son Michael, age 7.

Discharging gun in city alleged Jessie W. Kirk, 55, of 17044 Cleveland Blvd., was charged with discharging a firearm in the city limits after he allegedly fired a .22 caliber rifle at several persons gathered near his apartment at 11:35 p.m. Sunday.

Mike Baker, Alton, and Daniel Freeze of the 2800 block of West 20th Street, said they were seated in Freeze's auto in the alley behind Kirk's building talking to other persons when shots were fired at them from an upstairs apartment.

Police alleged seeing Kirk in the doorway of his apartment with the rifle in his hand. They arrested him and he was released on $102 cash bond.

Telex now offered here

Western Union has announced that Granite City is now both a Telex I and Telex II (TWX) exchange city.

The local business community will be able to subscribe to the services without paying for leased extension facilities to another exchange city, as formerly was required.

Western Union's interconnected Telex teletypewriter exchange services provide users with a communications service that seeks to combine the speed of immediate delivery with the accuracy and written-record value of a letter.

A Telex subscriber can communicate electronically with any of 140,000 domestic subscribers plus 80,000 more in North America and another million around the world.

In addition to direct terminal-to-terminal service, subscribers have access to a variety of other message services, including mailgram, telegram and cablegram service, store-and-forward delivery of Telex messages addressed to busy or inoperable stations, multiple-address message service to stored lists of addressees, and on-line information services ranging from stock price quotations to reports on ski conditions.

Judith Whitmer Lane, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel D. Whitmer of Granite City, and Major Robert Dean Rich, U. S. Air Force, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. Lloyd Rich of Bean Station, Tenn., were united in marriage on May 23.

The wedding service was performed at 3:30 p.m. at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church.

Trina Kay Rich and Bradley A. Lane, children of the bride and groom, attended their parents during the ceremony.

Mr. and Mrs. Whitmer, parents of the bride, hosted a wedding supper following the ceremony at Ravenhill's Restaurant.

Among the guests were the groom's parents and the bride's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald E. Whitmer and children, Travis and Allison, of Granite City.

The bride is the Reserve Forces adviser for Military Airlift Command, DCS Personnel, at Scott Air Force Base, near Belleville.

Her husband presently is stationed at Scott AFB as chief of the War Readiness Branch, DCS-Logistics, Military Airlift Command Headquarters.

Mr. and Mrs. Randall Camren

Troop 7 in ceremonies

Scouts of Troop 7 at St. Joseph's Catholic Church, joined local Cub Scouts, Brownies and Girl Scouts in attending Memorial Day Ceremonies at City Hall.

Before attending ceremonies, Troop 7 Scouts presented Fr. Victor Chateaufort, pastor of St. Joseph's Church, and executive officer of Troop 7, with a birthday cake and sang "Happy Birthday."

Pre-ceremony activities included a game of "touch-down." The troop raised its American flag in honor of America's War Dead, with Mike Mainridge, bearing the American flag and Mark Brazel, carrying the Troop's Colors.

Scouts then proceeded with a parade from the parish grounds of St. Joseph's Church to City Hall.

The troop's next civic event will be the Flag Day Ceremony, Sunday, June 14, sponsored by the Granite City Elks.

Camren-Dunn

Miss Judy L. Dunn, a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dunn of Bonne Terre, Mo., and Randall H. Camren, son of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Camren of Granite City, were united in marriage in a candlelight service on May 16 at 7 p.m. at Mount Zion General Baptist Church.

The Rev. Donald Clark officiated at the double ring ceremony.

Oranist Miss Janice Camren, a sister of the groom, accompanied Vicki and Larry McCann as they sang, "If" and "The Lord's Prayer."

Escorted to the altar by her father, the bride chose a formal length white gown designed with a high collar and V-neck accented with a ruffle.

Her matching veil was edged with lace and she carried a bouquet of white carnations with blue baby's breath.

Maid of honor was Miss Sarah Millon and Mrs. Beverly Lowe, a sister of the groom, served as bridesmaid.

They were groomed in blue formal dresses created with fitted bodices, round necklines, and puff sleeves. Each attendant held an arrangement of blue carnations, baby's breath and greenery.

Tara Dunn and Marty Wolfe, a niece and nephew of the bride, was the flower girl and ring bearer.

She wore a long frock similar to the adult attendants and she held a miniature bouquet.

David Harley attended the groom as best man. Tim Clark was the groomsmen and Gary Lowe and Joe Thomas seated the guests.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Dunn selected a two-piece Navy blue suit and wore a corsage of blue carnations.

The groom's mother was attired in a beige suit and her corsage was of yellow carnations.

Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held in the church fellowship hall.

Miss Sherrie Lowry of Festus, Mo., attended the guest book.

The bride graduated in 1980 from North County High School, Bonne Terre, Mo., and the groom was graduated in 1979 from North High School, St. Louis.

They are making their home in Dallas, Texas.

Out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Scott Kelsaw, St. Louis, Sp. 4 Kenneth Dunn, Fort Campbell, Ky., Mrs. Algie Keady, Ron Keady and Donna Hood, Webster Groves, Mo., and Mrs. Alvin Lowry, Festus, Mo., and Mr. and Mrs. Norman Sharp, Warrenton, Mo.

Three graduates honored

Three cousins from the Quad-Cities were honored at a graduation party last week at the Annets Hall in Granite City.

The honorees were Christine Tepeschore Hatfield, a graduate of Granite City High School South, Karen Kay Kaminski, a Madison High School graduate, and Anna Louise Crawford, who graduated from Granite City High School North.

A buffet dinner was served to the honored guests, families and friends.

The hall was decorated in the colors of each girl's school and entertainment was provided by a country-western band.

Among those attending were Gene and Dorothy Hatfield, David and Maryanna Kaminski, and Thomas and Robert Crawford, parents of the graduates, and Robert and Lillian Brokaw, Chester and Angela Hatfield and Leslie Crawford all grandparents of the graduates.

Great-grandparents attending were Anna Holman and Ed and Lillie Brueggeman.

Out of town guests included Harlan Nissenbaum, Creve Coeur, Mo., Bill and Gayle Rainy, St. Charles, Mo., Ron and Mary Luntzer and daughters, Angie and Kathy, of St. Louis, Charles and Cecelia Holman, Oakdale, Ill., and son, Mark, and Paula Laster and daughter, Brandy, all of Edwardsville.

Stephanie Cheney and daughter, Ariene, and Judy Malone, all from Burk Burnett, Tex., Frank and Sumi Durick and son, Jimmi, Jimmie and Carol Smith and son, Jason, all from Collinsville, James and Connie Ludwick and daughters, Tammy and Sheri, of Scott Air Force Base, and Bill and Betty Murray of Roxana.

Flowers & Gifts

The carnation, Dianthus caryophyllus, is native to the Near East and has been cultivated for the last 2000 years. It gets its name from the Latin "carnis", or flesh. This is because the flower is thought to be pink, or flesh-colored. According to Christian legend, the flower first appeared on earth for the first time when it sprang up from the tears Mary shed on the way to Calvary. The pink carnation has since become the symbol of mother-love. For that reason, it was chosen by Ann Jarvis of Philadelphia in 1907 as the emblem of Mother's Day, now an official holiday in the United States.

People choose to come to us at BETTY & BOB'S FLOWERS AND GIFTS, 2156 Pontoon Road, 877-8833 because of our friendly help and complete selection of flowers. Let us "Help You Say It Right" this Father's Day. We have a nice choice of unusual arrangements. Stop by and make your selection from 9 a.m.-5 p.m. Mon. thru Sat.

FLOWER TIP:
To keep indoor plants growing straight rotate the pots frequently about a quarter of a turn so they absorb the sunlight evenly.

Luncheon in Creve Coeur

The Past Matrons Club of Granite Chapter 650, Order of Eastern Star, met in the home of Blanche Leuchter at Creve Coeur, Mo., during the weekend for a luncheon and meeting.

Thirteen past matrons attended and a guest, Evelyn Nancey. All repeated The Lord's Prayer to open the meeting.

Dorothy Watkins, president, was in charge and read an original poem, entitled "Your Luncheon," to the hostess, who also was presented a gift.

"Happy anniversary" wishes were extended to Hannah and Roz Kleinschmidt on their 50th wedding anniversary.

Other members and their husbands celebrating anniversaries are Betty and Harry McClintock, Arline and Jimmy Fox and Virginia and David John.

Special thoughts were offered to Sadie Jones, Clara Harbig and Katherine Roman. All are past matrons who are in ill health and unable to attend.

David John, a past patron of Granite Chapter, was sent a "get well" card.

In the business session, Mary Bilbrey, Mrs. McClintock and Donna Kays were appointed to plan the group's Christmas party.

It was announced all past matrons will escort the worthy grand matron at the chapter's official luncheon, scheduled Friday night.

After a summer recess, Mrs. Kleinschmidt invited the group to convene at her home Sept. 14.

Each member received a small crocheted hat, inscribed with the name of the office she will assume on Past Matrons' Night in September.

During the social hour, games were played and prizes were awarded to Kathryn Edna, Mrs. John and Mrs. Watkins.

In addition to those mentioned, also present were Rose Henley, Ida Cariss, Betty Elbrecht and Frances Williams.

Vacation Bible school planned

Bethesda Baptist Church, 3035 Namecki Drive, Granite City, will have a week of vacation Bible school starting June 15 and continuing through June 19.

Classes will begin at 8 p.m. and dismiss at 8:30 p.m. The youngest class will be for those 4 years old. There will also be classes for children through the sixth grade. An evening of Bible study, crafts, games and singing is planned for each evening according to Viola Hoffman, the school director.

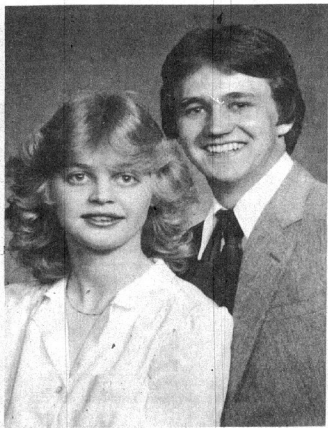

On Sunday, June 21, at 7 p.m. there will be a commencement service with a display of crafts and achievements made during the week. Rev. Luther Abbott, the pastor invites young people in the area to attend.

EXPERT APPRAISING
MORRIS REALTY CO.

In every place beer is enjoyed, sooner or later, someone will pose the age-old question: "What is the correct way to pour beer?" Actually, it boils down to personal taste in how much of a head an individual likes. But, the head does serve an important purpose in releasing some of the carbonation and allowing the full bouquet to rise. The ideal head is about 1 1/2 to 2 inches in height. To achieve this, pour a little directly in the glass, then tilt the glass on an angle while pouring. Straighten the glass upwards again just before the glass is full. Although it is generally considered a mistake to pour beer without a head, there are, obviously, exceptions. The direct-from-bottle-to-lips method is a completely different story.

Laura Wickman and Billy Dalton

Dalton-Wickman

Mr. and Mrs. James J. Wickman, 3251 Franklin Ave., are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Laura Wickman.

The groom-elect is Billy Dalton, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Dalton, 2604 Missouri Ave.

Miss Wickman, a 1979 graduate of Granite City High School South, presently is a junior at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville. She is majoring in biology and medical technology. The bride-elect also is employed at the Weather Vane in Granite City.

Her fiancé also is a 1979 graduate of Granite City High School South. He attended the Rankin Technical School and currently is employed as a maintenance electrician at the East St. Louis Castings plant.

The betrothed couple and their families are completing plans for an Aug. 22 wedding at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church.

Dr. Clay speaks to guild

Dr. Thomas Clay was the guest speaker at last week's meeting of the Evening Guild at St. John United Church of Christ.

A Granite City chiropractor, Dr. Clay spoke to the 23 members present about acupuncture, health and healing. A potluck dinner was served and a regular business meeting was conducted.

It was announced the guild will meet during July and August, but will resume regular sessions in September.

Serving on the June fellowship committee were Yelma Farrance, Lucille Healy, Janette Krause, Nancy Wilson and Doris Laboratory.

Cradle shower for Mrs. Judd

Mrs. Patrick (Roberta Ferguson) Judd of Gashlight Walk Apartments was the guest of honor at a baby shower last week at the Pontoon Recreation Center.

Hostesses for the party were Mrs. Susan Judd, the honoree's sister-in-law, her mother, Mrs. Evelyn Ferguson, and Mrs. Debbie Townsend. Mrs. Barbara Spink assisted at the festivities.

Pink and blue streamers decorated the tables and a decorated cake was topped with pink and blue "shoes." Miniature "diapers" filled with mints were placed as favors for each guest. Ceramic potted plants with silk flowers, made by Mrs.

Judd, served as centerpieces and later were awarded as gifts.

Prizes were won by Yvonne Gill, Angela Judd, Teresa Townsend, Jeanette Schmidt, Vicki Ellen Mansfield, Pauline Curtis, Nancy Williams, Karen Downs, Augusta Schaffer and Tina Kietly.

Party honors Thomas King

Thomas King, 2575 North St., celebrated his 80th birthday with relatives and friends at a western style party given at his home.

As the guests arrived they were given cowboy neckerchiefs and prizes for the best western dress were presented to Mrs. Velda Tyler and Mrs. Pearl Ellis.

Decorations were cowboy hats and large "wanted" posters, cactus signs and antique campfire utensils were used as centerpieces and wall decorations.

The honoree's birthday cake was made in the shape of a buckboard wagon and a buffet of western style food was served.

Miss Melanie King, daughter of the guest of honor was here on a visit from Sacramento, Calif., accompanied by a friend, Mrs. Carol Paycer.

Other out of town guests included Mr. and Mrs. Dempsey Cross from Salem, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Langendorf, Mr. and Mrs. Horace Hoffman, St. Louis.

Local guests were Mr. and Mrs. Fred Acosta, Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Reed, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Polley, Bill Polley, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Tyler, Mr. and Mrs. Jerry Wells, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Rea, Mrs. Mickey Cline, Mrs. Naomi Barker, Don Ballard, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hoffman, Mr. and Mrs. Wendell Johnson, Miss Amy Johnson, Greg Jones and Mr. and Mrs. William Herman.

Mrs. Velva Brewster hosted Faith Circle in her home last week, with Mrs. Leitha Gitchoff serving as co-hostess.

The meeting opened with 13 members reciting The Lord's Prayer. The devotions were given by Mrs. Marylouise Neipert, who entitled the story, "The Junk Yard and the Park."

Mrs. Clara Sotiroff gave the "Least Coin" lesson, using "The Witness" as her theme.

Mrs. Meyer gave a report of the executive meeting of the Women's Society during the business meeting. Mrs. Shirley Lane informed the group that workshops have been established for the November bazaar. She asked for continued support from circle members toward the project.

It was noted this year marks the 40th anniversary of the Church Women United and a campaign has been launched in an effort to have a commemorative stamp printed in observance of the occasion.

Other members in attendance were Mesdames Thelma Clements, Lillian Compston, Madonna Greshing, June Karandjeff, Bessie Milton, Olga Tierney and Miss Ella Ray Smith.

Mrs. Surbey hosts chapter

Chapter HT of the PEO Sisterhood met last week at the home of Mrs. Paul Surbey in Edwardsville.

During the business meeting, the ways and means committee announced plans are complete for a rummage sale to be held July 19 at the home of Mrs. Paul Jackstadt. Committee chairmen submitted their final reports for the year.

Mrs. Maurice Dailey, president, conducted an emblem service for Mrs. William Gaumer, Mrs. John Gordon and Mrs. Gary Morgan.

At the conclusion of the business meeting Mrs. Dailey reported to the chapter on the recent 7th annual convention of the Illinois State Chapter of PEO she had attended last month in Harvey, Ill. Mrs. Dailey was one of 327 official delegates attending the three-day meeting. During the business session it was

Birthdays marked by Silver Bells

The Silver Bells Senior Citizens Club celebrated April and May birthdays with a potluck dinner at the regular monthly meeting last week.

The meeting was opened with a psalm which was recited by the 60 members and four guests in attendance. Mrs. Pearl Jackstadt then presented a program for the group.

A welcome address was given by Mrs. Kathcen Moore, followed by Mrs. Marion Guest, club president, singing "The Lord's Prayer." The group also heard a poem, which was read by Mrs. Alice Harris.

Joseph Jones, a guest speaker, told the club members of his blessings. The group also heard a talk by Mrs. Janie Robinson, after which she sang a solo. Dinner was served to members and guests, including Mr. and Mrs. Courtney Prothro, of Madison; Mrs. Monica Owens, of Spanish Lake, Mo.; and David Ofrum, of Oklahoma City, Okla.

Recognition of May birthdays was given to Mrs. Robinson, Mrs. Moore, Mrs. Harris and Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Owens.

The group wished a happy belated April birthday to mesdames Jessie Boyd, Roale Mitchell, Elizabeth Payne, Geneva Mitchell and Sally Blakely.

Daughter of Zane Zimmermans

Mr. and Mrs. Zane Zimmerman, 3221 Wayne Ave., became the parents of their second daughter, Melessia Elizabeth, born June 6 at St. Elizabeth Medical Center. She weighed seven pounds and three ounces and has a 2 1/2-year-old sister, Monica Lynn.

Mrs. Zimmerman is the former Mary Humphreys, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Humphreys of Granite City.

Mrs. Zita Zimmerman of Wood River, and Paul Zimmerman of Jacksonville Ill., are the paternal grandparents.

Great-grandparents are Mrs. Ruth Voss, and Mrs. Robert Humphreys Sr., all of Granite City, and Mr. and Mrs. John Simon of Wood River.

New car plate stickers due by June 30

Passenger car owners with license plate registrations expiring in June have until midnight Tuesday, June 30, to display brown 1982 stickers in the upper right corners of their rear plates.

Secretary of State Jim Edgar said approximately 586,000 renewal applications have been mailed to registered owners who currently display green 1981 stickers expiring in June.

Applications made by mail should be in the Secretary's office no later than Monday, June 15, to guarantee delivery by the June 30 deadline.

Stickers also may be purchased over the counter at the Secretary of State's Springfield and Chicago facilities or many financial institutions participating in the license renewal program.

Effective Wednesday, July 1, anyone driving a car with an expired green, June 1981, sticker may be ticketed and fined for improper registration.

If you have any questions about the secretary of state's office, use the Secretary's toll-free telephone number (800-232-8980).

O'Connell-Williams

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce M. Mori, 165 Sandy Shores Drive, Granite City, announced the engagement of their daughter, Paula Marie Williams, to Daniel W. O'Connell of Des Plaines, Ill., at a family gathering at their home.

The bride-elect, a 1975 graduate of Granite City High School South, attended William Woods College in Liberty, Mo., where she was graduated in 1979 with a bachelor of science degree in Interior Design.

She is employed as an interior designer by Hufford Furniture Co., Chicago. Her fiancé, a son of Mrs. Gertrude O'Connell of Des Plaines, is a graduate of the University of Illinois at Champaign-Urbana and received an MBA from Harvard University. He is a vice president for the Limited Markets Division of the First National Bank of Chicago and a lieutenant commander in the U.S. Navy Reserve.

The couple is planning to be married Sept. 28 at St. Margaret Mary Catholic Church. The Rev. Charles Ruby, a lifelong friend of the groom-elect, will officiate at the ceremony.

Attending the betrothal announcement party were the bride-to-be's maternal grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Lombardi, her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Michael Thaxton and children, Zachary, Eric and Kristen, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lombardi, an uncle and aunt, all of Granite City.

Evans-Catlett

Mr. and Mrs. William Bryan Catlett of Grandin, Mo., formerly of Granite City, are announcing the engagement and approaching marriage of their daughter, Miss Lisa Catlett, to Joe Evans of Ellinore, Mo.

The couple will be married June 27 at the Assembly of God Church in Ellinore. The bride-elect attended Granite City High School South prior to moving to Grandin.

Her fiancé's parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Evans of Ellinore. Local friends and relatives are expected to attend the wedding ceremony.

New members in Friendly Agers

Three new members were enrolled into the Friendly Agers Group at its monthly meeting and potluck dinner held last week in the fellowship hall at Second Baptist Church. There were 41 other members present.

The group opened the meeting by singing "The Battle Hymn of the Aging." Prayers were led by Naomi Roney and Art Hoffman. The reading, entitled "I Had a Dream," was presented by Mrs. Roney. Singing followed, with Alice Hoffman performing "Follow, Follow Jesus."

The group discussed plans for a trip to Grant's Farm. It was noted that Ruby Mayberry was in charge of the games.

The devotional and closing prayer were given by the Rev. Carl Watkins.

Circle notes
Father's Day

At the Patience Circle meeting last week, it was noted that 26 sick calls were made in May. The group met at Niedringhaus United Methodist Church, with Mary Ahlvers, circle president, in charge.

The "Least Coin" service was led by Wanda Lynn. Edna Lynn gave the devotional, entitled "Fathers of the Bible," in absence of Father's Day and a reading, "Our Father," taken from the Holy Land Pictorial News, also heard by the group.

Others in attendance were Mesdames Ethel Lerch, Katherine VanOrder, Mabel Stewart, Doris Wigger, Pearl Auburn and Nellie Hart. Pay Steele was present as a guest. Hostesses for the day were Eva Evans and Paula Smith.

The next meeting will be on July 7 at the church with a "pot-luck" luncheon and a "while elephant" sale being held.

It may be impossible to ever conclusively prove that man is a completely free agent, one who acts independently and not as a link in a chain whose action is determined by events that preceded him. However, freedom, as we live with it in this country, is a necessary concept. By saying that we are free, we claim responsibility for our thoughts, creations and actions. Freedom also allows us to strive for a better life, a higher ideal. Life itself becomes more meaningful when we believe that what we do is the result of a free choice and thereby creates a moral meaning.

MERCER, THOMAS AND SEDLACK MORTUARIES is dedicated to providing professional and concerned service combined with the individualized attention to the emotions and feelings of the moment. The passing of a loved one creates an emotional as well as confusing state. Our staff is experienced in assisting the bereaved with the decision making requirements as well as helping with the intangible demands of the moment. For service and empathy in your hour of need, let the staff of MERCER, THOMAS AND SEDLACK MORTUARIES assist you.

THOUGHT FOR THE WEEK

Freedom cannot be taught. It is an individual expression that is inherent in all people and is manifested or suppressed according to one's own circumstances.

Daughters of Isabella enroll 8

Our Lady of Fatima Circle 838, Daughters of Isabella, welcomed eight new members at its meeting last week at the Knights of Columbus Hall.

The newcomers are Helen Ann DeRantz, Theresa Straubinger, Mary Lou Ohlendorf, Ann Marie Schaub, Melba Ricker, Catherine Ponce, Irene Feeler and Mildred Shifter. They were installed and greeted by Regent Florence Foring.

Chancellor Annaliese Garmati offered the opening prayer and led the pledge to the flag. In the business session, Mrs. Portell presented a report on events at the state convention, held at the Bismarck Hotel in Chicago. Those attending the state conference from here were Anne Pare, Clara Schilling, Vera Carey, Mary Ann Tolka, Lee Reilly, Marianrose Lambert, Dorothy Hoedebeck, Irma Manning, Peggy Crnkovich and Mrs. Portell. The next meeting will be combined with a garden party at the home of Mrs. Crnkovich, 1802 Market St. Madison, starting at 6:30 p.m. July 2.

Members were asked to bring covered dish food items and also to make a reservation by calling 451-8120 before June 24. Planning the garden party are Mrs. Crnkovich, chairman, Ann Acquaviva, Irene Argelan, Ethel Baldman, Marie Bertacchi, Mamie Boyer, Ann Brennan, Dorothy Bridick, Florence Byrne and Mrs. Carey. The Rev. Melchior Töczek, OFM, chaplain, offered a prayer to conclude the meeting and refreshments were served.

DATE CORRECTED
Mr. and Mrs. Louis and Viola Morgan celebrated their 44th wedding anniversary with a candlelight dinner served by the St. Elizabeth Medical Center staff in Mrs. Morgan's room at the center, where she is recuperating from injuries received in an auto accident. Through a typographical error under a picture of the couple it stated they were celebrating their 64th anniversary. The Press-Record regrets the error.

Silver anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Don Johnson, of Highland, Ill., formerly of Granite City, were guests of honor at a silver anniversary reception given by their children.

Guests were received at an open house affair from 1 to 5 p.m. at the home of the honorees.

Johnson and his wife, the former Barbara Barr, were married May 4, 1956. The Rev. Robert Shaw officiated. The couple has two children, a daughter, Mrs. Gary (Vicki) Ellis, and a son, Gary Lee Johnson, both of Granite City. They also have two grandchildren, Jeremy and Jamie Ellis.

Prior to moving to Highland about 2½ years ago, Mr. and Mrs. Johnson were residents of Granite City for many years. Both are graduates of Granite City High School.

Johnson is employed at the Illinois-American Water Co. Filter Plant, in East St. Louis. His wife works at the Operating Engineers Local 148 Credit Union in Granite City. They are members of the Pochontas Assembly of God Church in Pochontas, Ill.

Homemakers hold party

The Granite City Homemakers held a surprise party and luncheon in honor of outgoing chairman, Wilma Owca, at the Nameoki United Presbyterian Church.

The tables were decorated with bouquets of fresh summer flowers and the main table, contained a large cake with "Thank You, Wilma" on it.

After the party, Elizabeth Schmidt, chairman, opened the regular meeting with the pledge of allegiance to the flag. Also on display was the 4-H flag. The major lesson, "A Matter of Time," dealing with time management was given by Bessie Grosso and Martha Taylor.

A vote was taken in favor of the new officers: Leona Delafaye for treasurer and Helen Hartung for second vice-chairman.

The hostesses for the day were Hazel Gline, Ann Palsgrove and Helen Slecka. Alma Beckman read the poem, "The Lonely, the Old, and the Forgotten" at the close of the meeting.

Others attending were: Vivian Byer, Hilda Griffith, Carl Hoffman, Bernice Johannigmeier, Marcie Johnson, Janette Kraus, LaNell Lessee, Antoinette Lynch, Freddy McElroy, Martha McIlvoy, Anna Michels, Anne Pare, Helen Parks, Madge Ramsey, Florence Simpson, Irma Taylor, Louise Thompson, Laura Travis, and Adele Wasyak.

The next meeting will be on July 7 at the church with a "pot-luck" luncheon and a "while elephant" sale being held.

Marshall PTA
closes season

Marshall School PTA Unit sponsored its final event of the season with a school picnic held at Wilson Park.

Featured at the event were various game booths, food, drinks and lawn games. During the final meeting of the organization an election of officers was held. Those to serve for the ensuing year were: Larry Hahn, president, the Rev. Clayton Moorman, vice-president, Darlene Andrews, secretary and room mother chairman, Joan Stark, treasurer and carnival chairman, and Alice Hahn, membership chairman.

Dennis Asbeck, was presented with a special gift in recognition of his service for two years as president of the PTA.

The first show of the 1981 Muny season will be "Kiss Me Kate," starring Robert Goulet.

Fares for the 1981 Muny Express have been reduced to $1 for adults and 50 cents for children and elderly or handicapped. For more information Quad-Cityans may call Bi-State Transit Information at 354-0923 in Alton-WoodRiver, 875-4144 in East St. Louis-Granite City or in Belleville, 233-3700.

THEFT IS ALLEGED
Robert J. Murphy, 18, of 1537 E. 20th St., and a 16-year-old companion were charged with theft after police alleged finding 30 cartons assorted of cigarettes stolen from Ken's Lounge, 1537 E. 20th St., in their auto on the parking lot of Belleville Village Shopping Center at 3:45 p.m. Friday. A witness alleged the two had been acting in a suspicious manner examining new clothes in the car and when the officer checked, he found the cigarettes, stamped with the lounge's name. Murphy allegedly admitted stealing them from a back room and Ken Archer, owner of the tavern, signed their complaints against the two, who were released on $35 cash bond each.

Seminar on business contracts

A seminar to acquaint minority businessmen and women with opportunities for doing business with government agencies will be held in Collinsville on Friday, June 12, at the Roundtable Restaurant, near the junction of Interstate 55 and Illinois 157.

The fee for the seminar, sponsored by the Illinois Department of Commerce and Community Affairs' Office of Minority Business Enterprise, is $10. The session will run from 9 a.m. until 4 p.m.

"Government procurement presents many opportunities for minority firms to increase their business," said John Castle, director of DCCA. "Government red tape, however, often discourages people from trying to take advantage of these opportunities. This seminar is designed to take some of the mystery out of the rules and regulations business people face when selling goods and services to government."

Castle said the day-long program will include speakers from the University of Illinois; the U.S. Small Business Administration; the Illinois Departments of Commerce and Community Affairs, Administrative Services, and Human Rights; and the Illinois State Chamber of Commerce.

Persons wishing to pre-register for seminars or who want additional information may contact Charles Shanklin, DCCA, Office of Minority Business Enterprise, 222 S. College, Springfield, 62706; 217-782-4999.

"We hope people will be able to compete more successfully for government contracts as a result of the seminar," Castle said.

Talent show plans for Muscular Dystrophy

Work has started for the second "Talent for MDA," which will raise money for the Muscular Dystrophy Association.

This is the second year for the event which is scheduled for Friday, July 24.

The event is again being chaired by Mrs. Deloris Hay, assisted by Sheila Kasson. The two women are asking for donations prior to the show. Those donating $10 or more will have their name or firm name printed in the program.

Checks may be made out to "Talent for MDA" or Muscular Dystrophy Association, and mailed to Mrs. Hay at 2013 Manley Ave., Granite City, Ill., 62040.

Mrs. Hay and her assistant will be making personal calls for MD donation. They will be the only two asking for direct donations.

Permits for storm repairs

A $45,000 addition to the Mexican Honorary Commission hall at 1801 Spruce St., an $8,000 shower room addition for L.C. Metals, 2864 Missouri Ave., led the list of building permits issued by Granite City during May, according to the monthly report released by William Dallas Jr., secretary of the inspection department. The Mexican Honorary Commission addition will be 20 by 31 feet in size and will be for restrooms and a lounge. The permits also included numerous repairs and replacements from a tornado and two severe storms which swept through the city during April and early May. One permit was for $25,000 to rebuild the house of William Seka, 2328 Cardinal Ave., which was demolished by the tornado April 3. Other permits for repairs in areas hit hardest by storms were issued to: Ronald Easley, 2812 National Ave., to repair damage to the south wall, $10,000; Blaine Lambert, 2337 Delta, carport, patio, siding, windows and roof, $18,000; Gerald Boyer, 3 Watertown, siding, roofing and gutters, $6,700; Brenda Braska, 6 Middlesex, guttering, roofing and siding, $3,000; A. Leroy Thomas, 2817 Saratoga, siding, storm windows, roofing and rebuilding a garage, $13,900; Ray Wall, 2324 Terminal, replace a room and a storage shed, $6,877; Truman Revelle, 5 Watertown, roofing and siding, $3,500; Cynthia McClure, 2403 Cardinal, roofing, siding and windows, $8,600; Harold Smith, 2403 Delta, roofing and siding, $1,300; and Roy Ferguson, 2705 Saratoga, replace roof, $2,100.

Other permits for repairs in storm-damaged areas were issued to: Louis Zeff, 2408 Cardinal, roofing, $3,000; William Krauskopf, 2809 Saratoga, siding and roofing, $2,000; Don Randall, 2308 Terminal, siding and garage, $5,000; Ed Garner, 2336 Cardinal, roofing, siding and a window, $4,000; Bruce Davis, 3013 National, garage, $3,000; and Ed Leach, 2816 Saratoga, porch, roof and siding, $7,000.

In addition to permits for storm damage repairs, the city issued one for a mobile home, one for a room addition, five for swimming pools and others for remodeling and repairs.

A total of 113 permits were issued during May with values totaling $379,294. Permits were issued to: Edward Sudyman, 1611 E. 24th (at Washington Avenue), roof repairs and rebuild patio, $450; Harry Snell, 2922 Pershing, garage, $6,515; James Stewart, 2615 Cayuga, mobile home, $19,000; Phil Crane, 129 Briarcliff, addition to house, $11,000; Daniel Barnes, 1713 Maple, roof deck, $100; Elmer Neumann, 2304 Edison, roof on house and garage, $600; Noris Eguert, 3108 W. 20th, porch and siding, $1,000; and Richard Portelli, 2924 Edgewood, siding, $5,000.

Eugene Miller, 2589 Boyle, storage building, $600; James Seiz, 2916 Wayne, siding, soffit and fascia, $995; Kevin Hoedbeck, 3270 Franklin, garage, $2,013; Clarence Hutchings, 3013 Forest, above-ground swimming pool, $2,400; Henry Mann, 1707 Garfield, concrete patio pad, $500; Leonard Reeves, 1709 Bremen, remove and replace a section of driveway, $400; John E. Judy, 2324 Woodlawn, build garage, $2,500; Francis Painter, 2445 Dodge, siding, soffit, fascia and gutters, $4,819; and Claude Green, 2127 Dewey, extend front porch, $45.

Edward Kessler, 2737 Sunset, steel siding, $3,200; George Widel, 2738 Willow, concrete driveway, $450; Mary Barker, 3241 Princeton, replace concrete, $3,376; Lillian Naeve, 2804 Garfield, siding, fascia, soffit and gutters, $1,890; Jess Harris, 2649 Benton, rebuild garage and driveway, no cost listed; Louis Fink, 2322 Lynch, front porch, $800; Barbara Rainwater, 2030 Washington, roofing, $1,000; James Hill, 2104 E. 24th, remodeling, $3,000; Sharon Perjak, 3228 Carlson, back porch and concrete sidewalk, $1,500; Scott Laird, 2810 Indiana, carport, $850; and Esther McCosky, 2818 Victory, soffit, fascia and guttering, $670.

BAC budget decisions delay need for tax increase

Comment by Fleishman-Hillard following a three-month study of Belleville Area College—We surveyed 57 individuals including faculty, staff, administrators, board members, media and civic leaders. Additionally, in-depth interviews were conducted with trustees, civic leaders and key administrators not included in the survey group.

The survey results show:
—91 percent have a generally favorable opinion of BAC, higher than either SUE or Lewis and Clark College.
—86 percent rate the quality of education as excellent or good; 14 percent as fair.

—89 percent rate the quality of teaching as excellent or good; 13 percent as fair or poor.

—64 percent consider the administration excellent or good; 29 percent as fair or poor.

At the beginning of this study, a tax increase proposal for the 300,000 residents of Community College District 522 seemed imminent, in the next two or three years.

Since then, the urgency of such an election seems to have diminished, based on the BAC financial plan for 1983-84 and assuming that state and federal support is sustained at reasonable levels.

Volters would respond positively to a future need, the survey showed, if BAC's community values are known and appreciated.

The study's overall, general impressions (not a demographically accurate sampling) include:
—BAC serves the needs of those students who otherwise might not get a chance at a college education. It is a super bargain, tuition-wise. It offers a wide variety of programs and, in a limited fashion, also serves the community as a cultural center.

—Student aid is a bargain.

—The faculty is excellent, full-time and part-time.

—There is general approval of the current program of effecting internal savings by the gradual process which is under way, as well as the program of small, year-by-year tuition increases.

But there are so many indications that drug abuse can be harmful to health—and to healthy aspirations and attitudes—that more and more people are becoming concerned about the current volume of experimentation.

Circuit Judge Rarick ruled June 4 that Graniteville may continue to enforce its law regulating "head shops" which request for an injunction against the document is being considered. The ordinance requires purchasers of paraphernalia to provide their names and addresses and the items acquired.

The judge noted that in declining to grant a preliminary injunction, he has not yet ruled on the constitutionality of the ordinance. A hearing on that issue is to be held within several months.

While he has not indicated what he ultimately will decide, his initial response is providing some encouragement for drug foes.

Enactment of the ordinance in May 1980 was followed by the closing of several shops offering "roach clips," certain kinds of pipes, "bongs" and other items used primarily for smoking cannabis.

Another drug dealer decided to voluntarily remove such goods from his inventory. And establishment of new enterprises of this type has slowed markedly.

Although other laws on the subject are somewhat complex and confusing, and do not entirely outlaw some forms of drug activity, we are convinced that the fewer paraphernalia stores, the better for our community.

For the time being, at least, the tide of battle is going against what once seemed to be an over-increasing pattern of resort to mind-altering drug consumption.

As it appears in the Granite City Federation of Teachers Local 743, we found the article entitled "Head Shops Strike" on June 1 to be comprised solely of misinformation and "unsubstantiated rumor."

The last paragraph of the article states that "Local 743 ... has never signed the previous two-year pact that expired this month." The pact does not expire this month.

Check your facts. Teachers will continue to receive salary, insurance coverage, and all other benefits provided by the pact beyond the end of the month.

In paragraph three, the article states that "board members seem convinced that the outlook among the faculty calls for a strike this fall." It would have been more informative if you had reported what statements from which board members led you to this conclusion.

Do all of the board members feel this way? Do one or two members feel this way? What have the members seen or heard to convince them that the faculty feels this way?

Based on the quotes of unidentified school board members which you reported, we are left with the impression that the board is not unified in its opinion.

The editorial reaction to President Reagan's new economic program stop it in its tracks. It now seems unlikely.

Congress has moved ahead on the budget-cutting aspects of the president's plan.

Reflecting the views of their constituents, a large number of senators and representatives agreed that stringent federal budget cuts are in order. This view is bipartisan.

On the Democratic side, influential members of Congress have said openly that the sweeping cuts in government's economic approach is not only desirable but inevitable.

Most Republicans seem to share the view of Senate Majority Leader Howard H. Baker Jr., who has predicted that the president's program will be substantially enacted.

Behind this seeming consensus of opinion is a strong popular consensus that government economic policy must be updated to deal with new economic realities.

The American majority signaled this consensus in the 1980 election.

Although this majority is generally patient, tolerant and reasonable, it ultimately gets what it wants. It now appears to want action on the president's campaign promises.

With great insight, Thomas Jefferson explained the process we're witnessing today: "It is rare that the public sentiment decides immorally or unwisely, and the individual who differs from it ought to distrust and examine well his own opinion."

Those words have remarkable applicability at the moment.

Although Congress seems to agree that federal budget cutting is needed, there are many critics of the president's proposal to reduce personal income tax rates.

The debate revolves around two scenarios.

One, increased spending for the next five years. Two, reduced taxes give people more money to spend. Three, therefore reducing taxes will lead to increased spending — and higher prices.

But this argument is based on an unspoken assumption that people will invariably spend extra income.

The fact is, however, that statistical data on U.S. savings habits during the past 20 years show that the assumption simply isn't valid.

An article published March 23 in The Wall Street Journal shows that during the first year of a tax rate cut, Americans gave most of the increase they receive in addition, people with above average incomes save more than those with average incomes. And finally, saving is stimulated further by the fact that savers will be taxed at lower rates on the earnings from savings.

The supposition that a tax rate cut will lead to more consumption is obviously very much open to question.

We need to act to support the president's tax cut proposal before it's too late. We need to act now.

I urge all to write your elected representatives immediately on this subject. Tax rate reductions will very shortly be a matter of heated debate in Congress.

Remember that in an urgent situation like this — between elections — your letters actually count as votes.

Federation—Faculty reasonable, would accept an attractive offer supply, it would be more reasonable to conclude that the board's outlook calls for a strike this fall, even though the strike sentiment may be insurmountable at teacher gatherings, no matter what is offered.

Local 743 will do all we can to avoid disharmony, too. Teachers are reasonable people.

The haven't seen a board offer yet, but we can assure you that if the board makes us an attractive enough offer, the alleged "strike sentiment" will not be insurmountable.

By the way, exactly what do you mean by "teacher gatherings"? We go to all union executive committee meetings and general membership meetings. The press isn't there and neither are board members.

How do you know the sentiment of teachers is such that they'll strike "...no matter what is offered"?

As usual, the officers of Local 743 weren't contacted concerning their views on the topics mistreated in the article. You probably felt there was no point in allowing the facts to ruin a preconceived notion, would assume, to make teachers look unreasonable and wholly to blame for any negotiations.

One more question: If the start of school is delayed, where would it be? The union which has heretofore made no inflammatory comments on negotiations; the board which starts talking about a strike before it sees one union contract proposal; or the newspaper which prints distortions and innuendoes?

(Editor's note: The article conveyed beliefs voiced by the board, not those of the newspaper.)

That people will invariably spend extra income. The fact is, however, that statistical data on U.S. savings habits during the past 20 years show that the assumption simply isn't valid.

An article published March 23 in The Wall Street Journal shows that during the first year of a tax rate cut, Americans gave most of the increase they receive in addition, people with above average incomes save more than those with average incomes. And finally, saving is stimulated further by the fact that savers will be taxed at lower rates on the earnings from savings.

The supposition that a tax rate cut will lead to more consumption is obviously very much open to question.

We need to act to support the president's tax cut proposal before it's too late. We need to act now.

I urge all to write your elected representatives immediately on this subject. Tax rate reductions will very shortly be a matter of heated debate in Congress.

Remember that in an urgent situation like this — between elections — your letters actually count as votes.

Tax benefit called unconstitutional

To the Editor:
I have just read of the bill passed by the Illinois Senate which would give parents a state income tax benefit for every child enrolled in a parochial or private school.

This tax benefit would give parents $37.50 for each child enrolled in such schools.

I think this is a direct violation of the "separation of church and state," as outlined in the U.S. Constitution.

I think the Catholics Lobby Committee, not only in Illinois but on the federal level also, is and has been evading the one most basic fact:

Parents who exercise their option not to send their children to public schools, but instead send them to church schools and/or private schools are obligated to pay for this option.

I certainly hope that all opponents to send their children to church schools are obligated to pay for this unconstitutional bill.

MADISON RESIDENT

Secondary Schools and Colleges.

Substantial growth has been seen in our services to children with various handicaps, and Granite City is widely recognized for its programs in this field.

Consolidation of school sites has financially aided critical maintenance on the remaining facilities.

The Illinois State Office of Education has recognized our program for academically gifted kindergarten through sixth grade students as being one of 24 exemplary programs in the state.

Beginning in the fall, services for junior high students will include a special elective offering, while senior high students will have an opportunity to earn college credits through advanced placement courses.

Cooperation with the city, townships, park district and Belleville Area College has extended community participation and enjoyment.

These signs of progress, along with those too numerous to list, did not just happen. Quality programs and dreams succeed because of people — dedicated staff and Board of Education members, caring parents, supportive businesses and industries and, of course, students — the purpose of our efforts.

These combined human resources surely make the challenge to continue excellence possible.

C.W. Terry, president of the Horseshoe Lake Park Association, presided at a meeting of the executive committee last night lying flat on his back. He used no gavel. Mr. Terry is at St. Elizabeth's Hospital where he has been for several weeks while a broken bone in his hip is knitting. The meeting was held in his room. Mr. Terry has been in the hospital several weeks and will be obliged to remain there ten weeks in all.

Naturally he did not want the Horseshoe Lake prospects to lie dormant for ten weeks. So he called a meeting in his room. A reporter for the Press-Record attended. It was one of the most unique civic meetings the reporter ever attended. Mr. Terry enjoyed the meeting. He did not have to quell any obstreperous speakers. Not once did he pound the table with a gavel for order.

John N. Marshall, chairman of the board of Granite City Steel Co., today answered on whether the local store will find new quarters so that $2 million, 7 to 9 story skyscraper and bank building can be erected in downtown Granite City. Besides an ultra-modern banking institution, tentative plans for the $2 million skyscraper are provided for a four-story office building, most of which would be occupied by Granite City Steel. There also would be multi-floor ramps for automobile parking and numerous other modern innovations.

A proposal under which Granite City might be able to build its $15.3 million secondary sewer system at virtually no cost to the city was outlined to the city council members Monday night, but was met, for the time being at least, by a cool reception. For more than hour, officials of the four Quad-City area townships — Granite City, Nemo, Venice and Chouteau — pointed out to Granite City aldermen the potential advantages of a cooperative plan in which the townships outside Granite City would build their own lateral sewers and then "buy our sewage treatment" from Granite City by hooking into Granite City's treatment system.

The plan, town officials said, is of vital importance to the township area sewer program. Unless Granite City will permit the townships to use Granite City's treatment facilities on a fee basis, construction of another treatment plant to serve the township area would be necessary.

Effort to avoid second holocaust

To the Editor:
For several years, Iraq has been constructing an atom reactor with military capability.

Using oil blackmail as leverage, the dictator Hussein refused the request of the French engineering contractor that the reactor be fueled with material sufficient for peaceful use but of insufficient grade to manufacture the bomb.

We remember that Iraq has for long had a declaration of war out against Israel, and that her dictator has sworn to destroy that country.

No Israeli government could do less than to protect the Jewish state from the certainty of the second holocaust had the Iraqi plan succeeded.

Mercer bidding for Lahey Funeral Home

Negotiations for the purchase of Lahey Funeral Home, 501 Madison Ave., Madison, are underway with the current owner, Bob Thomas, president of Thomas Memorial Mortuary, Inc., and operator of Thomas Mortuary, Mercer Mortuary and Sedlack Funeral Home, announced yesterday.

Thomas said he is in "serious" negotiations with Lahey, sole owner of the funeral home, to purchase Lahey Funeral Home and he expects these negotiations will result in the purchase and operation of the funeral home in the near future.

Thomas pledged that if the purchase is successful, he and his staff "will continue the fine quality of service to the community which has been the hallmark of the institution to the city of the residents of Madison and nearby communities over a long period of time.

These families served by Lahey Funeral Home can be assured of the same attention to detail and the considerations for all the family members which the Lahey Funeral Home and its operators have maintained for the past 25 years that institution has been in operation."

A carbon dioxide pellet pistol was stolen from on top of the dresser at the home of Cecile R. French, 2224 Grand Ave., he reported at 1 a.m. Wednesday. French said they had been several visitors in the house Tuesday afternoon and evening.

Legion ho-hums past Bethalto, 3-1

By PETE HAYES
Sports Editor
of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Tri-City American Legion baseball coach Eldon Warfield didn't appear too worried. After all, his team was playing Bethalto, a team that looked to be an easy mark.

Warfield joked around the dugout, clowning a bit between innings. But all the time, one eye was fixed on the goings on out on the field. Even though he didn't look concerned, he was. He always is. But as things turned out, he didn't have to be.

Tri-City ran its District 22 North Division record to 2-0 here Wednesday night with an easy 3-1 victory over Bethalto at Granite City South High.

Even though Tri-City managed to cross the plate only three times, the Triplets left the bases loaded in the first inning and were never really in trouble. That is, except for the fourth inning. Bethalto loaded the bases with one out, but a nifty 6-4-3 double play started by shortstop Kevin Sykes got the Triplets out of the jam without any damage.

"We're not playing super baseball," said Warfield. "But we're playing solid baseball. We get the double play when we need it. We move the base runners over when we need it. We sacrifice fly when we need it."

Tri-City stays perfect in league

Tri-City scored the only two runs it needed in the bottom of the fourth. Bob Ford led the inning off with a triple. A single by Rich Buer drove him home. After Buer stole second base, catcher Daren DePew grounded out, sending Buer to third. A ground ball by Rick Daily back to Bethalto pitcher Larry ("Froggie") Williams was bobbled. Buer scored and Daily was safe at first on a fielder's choice.

In the fifth, the Triplets got an insurance run. Sykes singled leading off and stole second. The throw on the play bounced into center field, allowing the Tri-City shortstop to move on to third base. A sacrifice fly by Jim Vrenick scored Sykes.

"Right now, I'm not worried about any one particular area of our game," said Warfield. "It's just a matter of the players learning to play together." Another thing the Tri-City players will have to get used to is working at a job all day and then turning around and playing seven innings of baseball, according to Warfield. Take Triplets starting pitcher Keith Burton, for instance.

After eight hours of sand-blasting on the job, he looked tired on the mound.

"He was tired," said Warfield. "He's not used to working eight hours and coming out and throwing hard."

"But in spite of being tired, he still was getting them (Bethalto) out. That says something for him. He looked alright but not fantastic. His slider was working. He'll be alright."

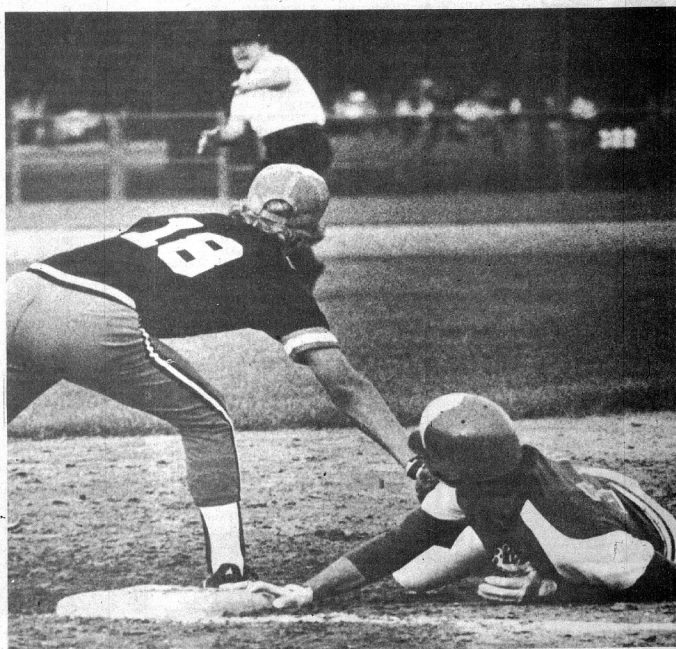

Burton with two out in the sixth inning and brought in Kevin Cripps for relief. Cripps, the Granite City North graduate who played at Lewis and Clark Junior College this spring, finished up. In Tri-City's four victories this season, Cripps has two wins and two saves. Tri-City, which figures to be in the thick of the race for the District championship this summer, was obviously miles ahead of Bethalto when it came to talent on the field. So why did the Triplets only out-hit Bethalto by two and win by only two? "It's hard to get up for a team like Bethalto," said Warfield. "You can't bomb everybody. You have to be aware that any team can sneak up on you. This team (Bethalto) isn't as bad as some people think. They haven't been beaten bad by anybody."

Warfield said he's pleased with the attitude his team has. "When these guys come out here, they come to win. All of them. And the guys who weren't playing weren't sitting around bitching about it. I saw a lot of things I liked."

After the first five games, Tri-City stands at 4-1, with the only loss coming to Paducah, Ky. in the second game of a doubleheader last week. "Paducah's as good a team as we'll see this year," Warfield said. "I think we're pretty much on schedule as far as our team goes."

Warfield said he's come up with a tentative pitching rotation. "Right now, it'll probably be Cripps, Burton and (Steve) Dwy. But we've got a few guys we're bringing along a little more slowly." Among the other pitchers on the Tri-City staff are Rick Takmajian, Rick Daily, Randy Cann and Paul Eads. Takmajian and Eads are from Granite City North. Daily and Cann are from Granite City South.

HE'S OUT. Tri-City's Rich Cope (right) and Bethalto first baseman Dan Hargrave both look toward the umpire last night to see if Cope was safe or out during a pickoff attempt during the two teams' American Legion baseball game at Granite City South. The decision? Cope was out. But Tri-City went on to win the game easily, 3-1.

Pugliese brings enthusiasm to SIU-E

By PETE HAYES

EDWARDSVILLE — When Washington State University assistant basketball coach Tom Pugliese picked up the phone and called SIU-Edwardsville Athletic Director Eldon Bigham about a job a couple months ago, he said he didn't exactly get an overwhelming response. But that's all changed now.

Pugliese, 43, was named the new head basketball coach at SIU-E here Tuesday, replacing Jim Dudley, who resigned in April.

"I heard about the job through the coaches' grapevine," said Pugliese, a native of New Jersey. "The rest of the Washington State coaches and I were sitting around talking about it. I got up from the table and called Mr. Bigham. I don't think he was too impressed at the time."

But Pugliese did a selling job on himself. And in the end, he was the unanimous choice of the selection committee. "We were impressed by his sincerity," said Bigham. "He's got the experience and the ability to generate excitement about the basketball program here."

Pugliese is optimistic about the job. "There isn't a state anywhere with better basketball than the state of Illinois," he said. "I feel my first obligation is to recruit the players from this area and the state of Illinois. There are enough good players here."

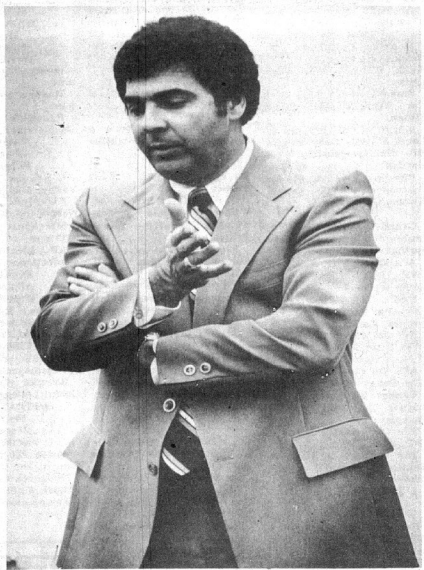

Of course, in his 19 years of college coaching, Pugliese has made a few connections from around the country. "Of course, I won't forget about them," Pugliese said. "And I won't be afraid to go out and get a junior college player if we need some help in a particular area fast. But I'm not an advocate of making that a habit."

Madison High head coach Larry Graham had been one of the coaches most often mentioned for the job. Graham, who has coached two state championship teams at Madison and is a scout for the Cleveland Cavaliers of the NBA, was thought to have had an inside track because of his knowledge of area talent and his good rapport with basketball people in the Midwest. But Pugliese's college experience won out in the end.

"It's easy to see what he wants to do here," said Bigham. "He helped one of the smallest schools in the Pac-10 conference finish second in attendance to UCLA. You have to go after it to get that kind of result."

Attendance at SIU-E games has been lacking. The Cougars play their home games at Edwardsville High School. Even though the gym there seats around 4,000, it has become hard to recruit both fans and players to SIU-E because the school doesn't have a gym of its own.

But all that's changing.

TOM PUGLIESE
New SIU-E cage coach

Construction is already underway for a new $12 million multi-purpose building that will include a 5,000-seat basketball gymnasium. "Having that facility under construction will definitely help in recruiting," said Pugliese. "We have a good Division II (NCAA) program built here," said Bigham. "And we know Tom can build onto it."

At Washington State, Pugliese was active in promoting the basketball program. He instituted the Coaches' Corner (a pre-game gathering of alumni, boosters and fans); led fund-raising efforts for the benefits of athletics; conducted a post-game radio show; and organized the high-bouncers, a group of youngsters interested in basketball in grades two through seven. He also plans to start basketball camps in the area. Pugliese said he had no qualms about going from a Division I school to a Division II. "That never entered into it," he said. "I just hope to be able to build to best possible program here and go from there."

Pugliese was head basketball coach for three years at Lehigh University, and assistant at Seton Hall for two years and an assistant at George Washington University for a year.

Pugliese said his first obligation was to meet with the players who will be returning to SIU-E next fall and were Dudley's recruits. "They're my first obligation," he said. "I'm not going to clean house. I don't believe in it. I'm not going to come in here and tell these players who have worked hard and played hard here that they aren't wanted anymore. I just don't operate like that."

Pugliese attended Panzer College in East Orange, N.J. and received his bachelor's degree from Sacramento State College in California. He was basketball team captain at Sacramento State and was named All-Far Western Conference guard.

Edwardsville stays on top of Legion District ranks

EAST ALTON — Edwardsville's American Legion baseball team stayed on top of the District 22 North Division standings here Tuesday with a 12-8 bombing of East Alton. The victory runs Edwardsville's record to 4-0 in league play.

Tri-City Post 113 of Granite City (2-0) technically is in a tie for first place with Edwardsville, Alton (3-0) and Collinsville (2-0) on percentage points, but has played two less games than the front-runner.

On Tuesday action, Cahokia edged East St. Louis

3-1, Marissa beat Belleville 3-0 and Fairview Heights bombed Freeburg 16-5. In Edwardsville's victory, Bob McManus drove in four runs with three hits. Edwardsville held a commanding 10-2 lead after three innings of play and never was seriously threatened. East Alton's nine errors in the game aided the Edwardsville cause. Pat Braun was the winning pitcher for Edwardsville.

CAHOKIA 3, EAST ST. LOUIS 1 — After bombing O'Fallon 17-0 Monday night, East St. Louis couldn't buy a hit against Cahokia. Tuesday, Cahokia's Ron Wuelling scattered five hits in leading Cahokia (1-2) to its first victory of the season. East St. Louis slipped to 1-2 on the season.

MARISSA 3, BELLEVILLE 0 — Marissa's Kevin Pour was nearly untouchable. He allowed Belleville just six hits and four walks in keeping his earned run average a perfect 0.00. Marissa scored all three of its runs in the third inning and left the rest up to Pour. Belleville got an excellent pitching performance from Tony Bedwell, who gave up just three hits and two walks. But the Belleville bats couldn't solve Pour.

FV HEIGHTS 16, FREEBURG 5 — Fairview Heights (1-3) won its first game of the season with a shelling of Freeburg. Fairview Heights scored four times in the first inning, twice in the second, three times in the fourth, twice in the fifth and five times in the sixth. Freeburg dropped to 0-3 on the season.

Bozada signs with Steamers

ST. LOUIS — The St. Louis Steamers have announced the signing of forward Bob Bozada to a one year contract with an option for 1982-83. Terms of the agreement were not disclosed.

Bozada, a native St. Louisian, joined the Steamers last season on Feb. 6 in a move to bolster an offensive attack weakened by the injuries to forwards Denny Vaninger and Greg Villa.

"Bozo" began his playing career at age of seven in the Catholic Youth Council at St. Sabina in north St. Louis County. He starred for four years at Aquinas High School, where he was named to the Missouri All-State team and the All American squad his senior year.

GROPEL RESIGNS — Illini men's tennis coach Jack Groppel has announced his resignation from full-time coaching. He will devote his time to research in bio-mechanics. A search is on for Groppel's replacement.

Pugliese attended Panzer College in East Orange, N.J. and received his bachelor's degree from Sacramento State College in California. He was basketball team captain at Sacramento State and was named All-Far Western Conference guard.

GC wrestling meet

GRANITE CITY — The second annual Granite City Wrestling Tournament will be held this Saturday, June 13 at Granite City South High School.

The tournament, which will begin at 10 a.m., will feature four divisions of competition — eight grade and under, high school age, open class and the "old timers" over 30 years of age. Weigh-in for all divisions will be from 7 until 9 a.m. There will be a $5 entry fee per wrestler. Those wanting to participate must have a Wrestling Federation membership card.

Those wanting further information may contact Bill Widel at 931-6754.

Fast-Pitch tourney

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District will hold a July Fourth Men's Fast Pitch Softball tournament on Sunday, July 5. All games will be played at Wilson Park Diamond No. 8.

The games will begin at 8 a.m. and run straight through to the 9:30 p.m. championship game.

Entry fee is $65.00 per team and must be paid at the time the teams register. Entries will be limited to teams currently in the Granite City Park District fast pitch league.

Teams will be allowed to pick up three players from other teams that are currently participating in the park leagues, providing their team is not playing in the tournament.

Five teams will be accepted in the fast pitch tournament. Trophies will be awarded to the top two teams entered in the tournament. Deadline for entry is Friday, June 12. Teams may register starting Tuesday, June 2. The tournament will be double elimination. Drawings will be made Tuesday, June 16 at 7 p.m. at the Wilson Park office.

Wells to SIUE

EDWARDSVILLE — Coach Bob Meyers has announced that Stacy Wells of Flora has signed a letter of intent to play for the women's tennis Cougars of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville this fall.

Wells has decided to follow in the footsteps of her older brother, Kent Wells, who played baseball four years for the Cougars. Stacy Wells has played the number one position on the Flora Community High School girls' tennis team for the last three years. In 1981, she compiled a 9-2 singles record and a 10 and 1 record in doubles. She qualified for the state high school tournament the last two years.

"Stacy will definitely be among our top six players this coming year. As to the exact spot, it's hard to say right now," Coach Meyers said.

Wells won the Junior Wiegmann Cup and was second in her high school district meet last year. Her victories include wins over Kelly Gassaway of Belleville and Paula Elmer of Champaign.

Special to the Press-Record

CHAMPAIGN — The University of Illinois athletic department was the only one in the Big Ten Conference to improve from last year in the league's all-sports standings for 1980-81.

The Illini finished fourth, up four places from last year, and reached a level of success unmatched at the school in more than 20 years. Illinois won three Big Ten titles (the most since 1960) and had six different squads place among the nation's Top 30.

The Illini won Big Ten titles in fencing, gymnastics and indoor track. The basketball team was invited to the NCAA post-season tournament for the first time in 18 years and advanced to the third round before being eliminated.

The Illini were exciting across the board and the prospects for the rest of the '80s are just as encouraging. In football, new head coach Mike White brought a high-powered offense to Memorial Stadium, entertaining fans with more yards of offense and more points than any other season could claim.

The Illini became the best passing team in Big Ten history, and behind the arm of quarterback Dave Wilson, set six NCAA, 20 Big Ten and 45 school records in a variety of categories. Those were enough to keep the Illini in sole possession of first place for the first six weeks of the season.

The team drew more than 300,000 fans at home for just the sixth time in history and played before its largest crowd ever—105,109.

In basketball, the Illini had their first 20-win regular season since 1968 and were ranked in the nation's Top 20 for most of the year. The squad led the Big Ten in scoring for the second straight year, won its own Illini Classic and broke an attendance record by playing in front of 16,663 in a noisy Assembly Hall.

In gymnastics, the Illini finished eighth in the country after gaining the Big Ten crown. In addition, the squad won the Illinois Intercollegiate and hosted the world's top ranked team—the Japan All-Stars.

In fencing, the Illini won their 28th Big Ten title, the most by any school in any sport, and went on to finish fifth in the nation.

In indoor track and field, the Illini ran to Big Ten and Illinois Intercollegiate titles and wound up 27th at the NCAA meet.

The cross country team was third in the Big Ten, yet won the Illinois Intercollegiate and finished 21st.

In swimming, the Illini won the Illinois Intercollegiate, while the wrestling squad won a 16-team tournament in Florida.

The baseball team qualified for the first-ever Big Ten playoffs with an 11-3 conference mark enroute to setting a school record for eight victories (36) in a season. The squad was the best rank 10th in the nation fielding team in the history among all schools.

of the conference and also set school marks in virtually every hitting and running category.

The tennis team won the Ball State Invitational, the first team title in a tourney in seven years and the golf squad won the SIU Invitational, the first championship for that team in five years.

The outdoor track and field team wound up third in the Big Ten and 22nd at the NCAA championships.

During the season, the Illini won the Illinois Intercollegiate in record-breaking fashion.

Through the years the University of Illinois athletic teams have ranked with the country's best. Illinois has won 145 Big Ten titles outright and has shared in 24 other crowns. Illinois has won 15 national team titles—eight in gymnastics, five in track and two in fencing—to rank 10th in the nation among all schools.

T-C Triplets bomb hapless Fairview

By TOM SCHOCKER of the Press-Record

GRANITE CITY — Tri-City American Legion Post 113's baseball team gave fair warning to its opposition. The Triplets beat Fairview Heights last Monday 17-2. Does anything more really need to be said?

Head coach Eldon Warfield felt that the completion of this week's district 22 play would give him a good idea what his team can do. Nothing like starting off on the right foot.

The score might indicate that the Triplets were kicking Fairview even while it was down. But that wasn't the case. "We weren't rubbing it into the ground," said Warfield. "After the score was 7-1, I stopped them from running. I wasn't going to tell them not to hit the ball, though."

And for the first time in the early season, Tri-City did indeed hit the ball. The contest could have been marked as a revenge game. Last year Tri-City sported an 8-1 lead over Fairview before it lost. Take it as you may, but the Triplets were out to do some damage.

Tri-City could have easily won the game with a normal two or three run inning. You know, nothing fancy. However, with the count at 6-1, Tri-City went berserk.

The Triplets sent 15 men to the plate in the fourth inning, were given seven walks, banged out five hits and score a whopping nine runs. Bob Ford had two hits in the inning and was joined by Rich Buer, Rick Daily and Joe Schnefke.

The seven walks equalled the entire output given up by Fairview through the first three innings. To say the least, Fairview's pitchers could not find the plate. For the game Tri-City was issued 15 bases on balls.

"It's good when you can score 17 runs on 15 walks and 11 hits," said Warfield. "I just hope we don't have a lot of these games. It's nice to win like this, but we need to go out and play hard every game."

Ford has been a player who has performed well for Tri-City. He collected three base hits in the game. However one player that might have broken out of his shell is Dan Patterson. "Patterson had a slow start at (Granite City) North," said Warfield. "I'm not worried about him."

Patterson gave his coach just reason to rest assured. He picked up where he left off as the record setting hitter in high school by giving Tri-City the early lead in the first inning. He banged out two hits and scored three times.

Drawings will be made Tuesday, June 16 at 7 p.m. at the Wilson Park office. Teams may begin registering Tuesday, June 2. The tournament will be double-elimination.

No mail orders

ST. LOUIS — Mail orders for tickets to the Football Cardinals' game against the Dallas Cowboys on Oct. 4 at the Busch Stadium are no longer being accepted by the Big Red, according to an announcement today by ticket manager Steve Walsh.

The announcement marks the earliest date in club history that mail order requests for a game have been suspended. It is approximately one month earlier than announced for the Dallas game last season.

Some single seats remain which will go on sale later this summer when the counter sales begin for all home games.

Tickets remain and mail orders are still being accepted for all other Cardinal home games, including the Big Red's season opener against the Miami Dolphins on Sept. 6 and the second annual Alumni Day game on Oct. 25 when the Minnesota Vikings visit Busch Stadium.

Tourneys are set

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District will hold two Women's Softball Tournaments, starting Tuesday, June 30 and ending Saturday, July 4.

There will be a Women's Class AA tournament with 6 openings for teams and a Women's Class A tournament with 11 openings for teams. Red Cross to choose officers, honor heroine

The Tri-City Chapter, American Red Cross, is announcing its annual dinner meeting Friday, June 12, at 7 p.m. at the Granite City Township Hall. This is the 100th anniversary of the American National Red Cross and it is the 64th year of service for the Tri-City Chapter.

Chapter officers and members of the board of directors will be elected. The public is being invited to attend, and anyone wishing to make reservations may call the Red Cross office at 452-7184.

In keeping with the centennial activities, Dr. Richard Kahn, scientific director, Bi-State Division of the American Red Cross, will be the speaker for the evening.

Dr. Kahn received his bachelor of arts degree in science degrees from the University of Missouri, and his doctorate of philosophy at Georgetown University. He has served as research physiologist at the Veterans Administration Hospital, Washington, D.C., and instructor in pathology at the Washington University School of Medicine, St. Louis, and is currently serving as the scientific director, Missouri-Illinois Regional Red Cross Blood Services.

A certificate of merit award will be presented to Mrs. Donna Pratt Hall.

Mrs. Hall was instrumental in saving the life of Roy Lynn in the Sunday morning worship services at the Third Baptist Church on Feb. 8, 1981, when she successfully performed cardiopulmonary resuscitation.

"The dinner is a time for fellowship and an opportunity, once again, for the staff and the board of directors to express their thanks to the volunteers for the job they continue to do, year after year," Gwendolyn O'Guin, chapter director, commented.

SCHOOL BOARD REORGANIZATION will take place June 23 following the seating of Edward Dewey Melton to complete the seven-member Granite City Board of Education on Tuesday night. A new president is to be chosen to replace Stephen Saltich, who

Dogs permitted to run loose by their owners in Nameoki Township are subject to being picked up by the township's humane officer, Tom Boushard, residents have been warned by Helen Hawkins, a member of the town board.

Mrs. Hawkins said this week that she has received numerous phone calls from residents who fear increased rabies cases because so many dogs are not on a leash.

She noted that Madison County has a leash law that requires all dogs be leashed and subjects pet owners to penalties for not doing so.

Complaints about loose dogs should be made to the township office at 931-1230 for reference to Boushard so that the animals may be picked up, she said.

Many areas have been reporting increases in the number of rabies cases this year and "people are aware of self care and to help the public also to become better acquainted with services which are available," Mrs. Hawkins said.

Octet '81 to visit Madison

Mary to sing the responses to the Festal Divine Liturgy of Pentecost and the Vespers of Pentecost at 9 a.m., on Sunday.

Following the services the parish plans a luncheon with the Octet '81 singers. Following the luncheon a short concert is planned.

Everyone is invited to share in the visit of this group and are encouraged to meet with these young men who, as students preparing for service to the Orthodox Church in America, give their summer to travel across the United States and Canada, visiting some 100 parishes to bring the seminary's message to the public.

Father Thomas also noted that the Octet '81 will also be at St. Michael the Archangel Orthodox Church, 1901 Ann (at Gravois) in St. Louis, to sing the responses at the Liturgy, Saturday, June 13 at 9 a.m. and on the same day at Great Vespers, at 6 p.m., with the parishioners and Rev. Father Sawchuk, prior to their visit at his parish in Madison.

Emergency aid topic for Business Women

The Granite City Business and Professional Women's Club will hold its monthly dinner meeting at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, June 17, at Bill Burns Cafeteria, 1920 Edison Ave.

Reservations, costing $5 each, may be made through Monday by calling Nina Limbaugh at 931-3170, or Pat Crockarell at 977-7074. All working women in the Quad-City area are invited to attend, according to Ollie Derr, BPW president.

Guest speaker will be Mark Ravenson, a registered emergency medical technician and a senior nursing student at Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville.

Eavenson, an EMT with the Granite City Fire Department for the past 2½ years, will discuss what services are available in the Quad-Cities for persons in need of emergency care and the means of self first aid until help arrives.

Mrs. Limbaugh, dinner chairman, said in arranging the program the Granite City BPW Club is following the BPW's nation program guideline, which focuses upon health, economics and energy during 1981-82.

"It is the intention of the club to become more fully aware of self care and to help the public also to become better acquainted with services which are available," Mrs. Limbaugh said.

She noted the group is planning to sponsor a CPR course for all interested persons at a later date, as well as participate in the Vial of Life program.

"Anyone interested in this topic is invited to attend Wednesday's meeting," the chairman added.

Happy Group to sponsor show

The Happy Group Seniors will sponsor a talent show from 7 p.m. to 9 p.m. Wednesday, June 24, at the Granite City Township Building, 2060 Delmar Ave. The public is invited to attend and tickets cost $1 each.

Plans for the event were reviewed at a meeting of the senior club last week at the township center. Thirty-nine attended and a new member, Joe Graklanoff, was welcomed.

Juanita Crawley, president, was in charge of the business session and the Lord's Prayer was led by Lester Thiele. The Pledge of Allegiance was recited in unison.

Mrs. Crawley said the club will host a ham and pineapple dinner at 1:30 p.m. June 18, with those planning to attend being asked to furnish a covered dish food item or dessert.

Birthday greetings were offered to Marguerite Collins, Josie Stoyanoff and Les Duenning.

Members were reminded of an evening barn and square dance program, also June 18, for all senior citizens residing in Granite City Township. The event will take place in the township center with staff members providing light refreshments.

Cake, coffee and tea were served after the meeting and games were played.

Among the winners were Thiele, Duenning and Graklanoff. Jo Wilkins also received a prize.

BARBECUE SATURDAY The Madison Lions club will hold a barbecue at the new Madison Lions Home, 910 Madison Ave., Madison, Saturday from 11 a.m. until 7 p.m. The club will have carryouts available or people may dine in the home.

CREWS LIQUOR IT'S STILL QUICKER!

Korte Co. to build office

The Marion City Council has approved its first industrial revenue bond issue, providing $600,000 to Ralph Korte Construction of Marion. The construction firm plans to build a new office facility and related structures and lease its current offices to Electronic Data Systems (EDS).

EDS, which already rents about 5,600 square feet from Korte of Marion, will expand into 3,000 square feet of office space used by the Korte firm at present. An additional 2,400 square feet in the complex is also leased to Illinois Environmental Protection Agency.

Korte Construction plans to use the $600,000 from the bond issue to build a 4,800 square foot masonry and steel office building and warehouse south of its current offices, along with an additional 4,000 square feet of commercial office space.

Don Schubert, president of RKC of Marion, stated, "Industrial revenue bonds was the only way to make it feasible". He estimated the city's participation will allow the company to sell the tax-exempt bonds at an interest rate 2 to 3 percentage points lower than the prevailing rate for private financing.

Children's Day at Madison church

A full day of activities for children ages 5 through 12 years is planned Saturday, June 13, at the Church of God of Prophecy, 1732 Rhodes St., Madison.

The event is scheduled in observance of "Children's Day," which is to be celebrated Sunday, June 14. Frieda Plantz, who is in charge of activities, said the program will take place from 9 a.m. until 3 p.m. at the church.

The theme will be based on "A Small Light for a Big World" and will include devotions, games and crafts. Lunch also will be served, Mrs. Plantz said.

Further information may be obtained by calling 451-0686.

Father Thomas Succarotte of the Nativity of the Virgin Mary Orthodox Church, 5th Street and Ewing Avenue, Madison, announced today the visit of the St. Vladimir's Orthodox Theological Seminary Octet '81 this Sunday.

Students from virtually all Orthodox jurisdictions in America and Canada (as well as various foreign countries) study together at this graduate school of Orthodox Theology in Crestwood, N.Y.

St. Vladimir's strives for Orthodox unity; to be a center for Orthodox reflections, and to be a focus on ecumenical dialogue in the Twentieth Century.

These eight students have been selected to represent both the seminary and the nationally-known, all-make choir.

Octet '81 will display and have available for purchase by the public, their recordings of Orthodox Liturgical and Folk Music, as well as a wide variety of Orthodox literature and religious articles.

Octet '81 will be visiting at the Nativity of the Virgin

Piano recital at Nameoki Church

Piano students of Mrs. Ruth Gibbs of Granite City presented their spring recital at the Nameoki United Methodist Church.

Among the guests were parents and friends of the youthful musicians. Selections ranged from the works of Debussy, Schubert and Rachmaninoff to John Thompson, John Williams and Charles Fox.

Vacation school at St. John

A vacation bible school will be conducted at St. John United Church of Christ, 2901 Nameoki Road, from June 15 to 19.

Classes will begin each morning at 9:30 and be dismissed at noon. Children from 3 years old through the sixth grade level are eligible to attend.

"God is Love" will be the program theme with each day's sessions focusing upon a different aspect of the theme. Children will be instructed through play and classroom activities. Classes will be divided into age groups.

All children in the community are being invited to participate in the school. Parents interested in enrolling a child may call 877-6094.

Summer openings at SIUE

Southern Illinois university at Edwardsville is still accepting applications for the summer quarter and will be doing so through the first day of classes, according to Eugene Magac, director of admissions and records.

Magac said that participation in summer school classes can provide degree-seeking students with options they may not have considered.

For students currently attending another college or university who are home for the summer and for students continuing their education at SIUE, attending classes during the summer can shorten the time necessary to obtain their degrees.

"It's an opportunity for college students to pick up a few extra courses while they are home for the summer," Magac said, adding that there will also be classes scheduled during the evening hours for the convenience of those holding summer jobs.

For students planning to enter SIUE for the first time this fall either as freshmen or as community college transfers, the summer session at SIUE will allow them to get a head start on their education.

In addition to the regular 11-week session, Magac said, other options at the University include a number of short-term, highly concentrated eight-week courses as well as a good selection of workshops, in almost all of the academic disciplines.

In addition to the regular 11-week session, Magac said, offer options at the University include a number of short-term, highly concentrated eight-week courses as well as a good selection of workshops in almost all of the academic disciplines.

Registration will be held June 16 from 8:30 a.m. until 7 p.m. in Meridian Ballroom of the University Center and June 22-23 in the Rendleman Building lobby during the same hours.

Auto strikes mobile home

A 4-year-old girl was injured when the southbound auto of Steven H. Rippee, 24, of 2407 Kirkpatrick Homes, went out of control due to a mechanical malfunction, struck the median of Nameoki Road and then crossed the southbound lanes before striking a mobile home in the Shelton Trailer Court, 2301 Nameoki Road, on lot 17.

Tiffany Hurt, also of 2407 Kirkpatrick Homes, was taken by a Granite City ambulance to St. Elizabeth Medical Center where she was X-rayed and was released.

Police said a tie rod in Rippee's car broke, causing him to lose control of the steering.

and other registration data may be obtained in the Office of Admissions and Records located in Room 1207 or by telephoning (618) 692-2720.

The Women's Division of the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce will honor all past presidents at its June membership meeting, scheduled Thursday, June 18.

Members will be entertained at the home of Vivian Gitchoff, with a cocktail hour starting at 6 p.m. and dinner being served at 7 o'clock.

Serving as co-hostesses will be members of the June program committee and the group's board of directors. Cost of the event is $5 per person and reservations may be made by calling the Chamber office, at 876-6400, prior to 12 noon, Tuesday, June 16.

The garden dinner party will be the division's last meeting until September. Bonnie Goldenberg, president, has announced. The group, however, is planning a rummage sale from 9 a.m. until 1 p.m. Saturday, June 20, at Schermer's Garden Shop parking area, 12th Street and Madison Avenue. Members wishing to assist with the project are invited to contact Jo Meyer at 876-1280.

VAN IS STOLEN

A black 1980 GMC custom van with three maroon stripes on the sides was stolen from the parking lot of the Nameoki Village Bingo Center between 6:30 and 8:45 p.m. Monday, according to the owner, William Martin of Florissant, Mo. The van had chrome wire wheels, a CB radio and an antenna and was valued at $15,000, Martin said.

HOUSE IS DAMAGED

Jim Leonard, owner of a vacant house at 2107 Fourteenth St., discovered Monday that the house had been vandalized. Mirrors were torn from the walls of two bedrooms and broken. Two support poles for the roof were knocked from the front porch and two chairs, a couch and the bar were torn. Outside, an aluminum storage shed appeared to have been struck by a vehicle and a barbecue grill was beaten with a hammer and broken. Rocks and bricks were thrown onto the roof, damaging the shingles, Leonard noted.

Study broader GC business licenses

A fairer system of business licenses which requires businesses to obtain city licenses than the old ordinance was studied in depth by the Granite City Council during a special meeting Thursday night.

Numerous businesses which were not required to purchase a business license under the existing ordinance will have to under the new ordinance, the aldermen were told.

Examples of businesses which did not need a business license in the past are banks and lending institutions, bakeries, veterinary hospitals, and brokers, caterers, paint stores, confectionaries, delicatessens and coin-operated cleaning establishments.

Also, exterminators, grocery stores, fruit and vegetable stands, hospitals, junk dealers and peddlers, lumber yards, nursing homes, restaurants, fuel oil dealers, clothing stores, auto dealerships, jewelry stores, curio establishments, decorating businesses, department and drug stores, appliance and furniture stores, coin-operated car washes, photo stores, construction companies, printing establishments and delivery services.

Ten aldermen were present for the special meeting. Absent were Aldermen Paul Ray Bowler, Margaret Nonn, Jake Varadach, and Steven Salich. City Attorney John Papa discussed the proposed business license ordinance in detail, including the price for each license.

Most businesses would be required to pay a $25 or $50 fee for a license, but some larger businesses would have to pay larger license fees, according to their size or number of employees. Papa explained, "activities given or sponsored solely for the benefit of and under the supervision of a religious, educational or charitable organization," including the school district and park district, would not be required to obtain a business license, the ordinance notes.

He also said that the possibility of some businesses having to purchase more than one license if they sell more than one type of merchandise has been eliminated. Each business must purchase one license, with the stipulation that it be the most expensive license required for the types of merchandise sold.

Some aldermen objected to some of the individual fees, reached no conclusive decisions. There also were objections that some of the proposed prices would be the same for small stores as large stores, such as grocery stores, which would pay $100 each, regardless of size.

Alderman Sam Whitmer said he is not optimistic that the ordinance would pass the council in its present form and Alderman Paul Fisk said he believes the ordinance needs further consideration.

Following are the activities and businesses requiring $5 annual licenses: billiard and pool halls (per table), bowling alleys (each alley), batting cages (per cage), auctioneers (per day), bakery delivery vehicles, self-service dry cleaners (per cleaning machine), scavengers (per vehicle), fuel and fuel oil dealers (per vehicle) and garbage trucks (each vehicle).

$10 license required
City $10 business licenses would be required for criers, expressmen and draymen (up to 3 tons and $20 if over 3 tons), elevator operators, itinerant merchants and transient vendors (per day) and delivery services (per vehicle).

A $25 business license would be required for the following businesses: concerts or entertainment under canvas (per day), animal shows (per day), auto shows (per day), rodeos (per day), barber shops (up to two chairs and $5 per additional chair), foundries (up to 15 employees, and increasing to $100 for more employees), florists, funeral homes, public garages (up to 15 vehicles, increasing to $50 for more vehicles), laundries (up to 10 employees and rising to $100 for over 25 employees) and machine shops.

Also restaurants (up to 25 seats and rising to $100 for more than 50 seats), second-hand dealers, fuel oil storage (up to 1,000 gallons and rising to $100 for more than 5,000 gallons), wholesale tobacco dealers (up to three employees with $1 more for additional employees), coal dealers, independent retail sales operations (per day), clothing establishments, jewelry, card and gift stores, curio establishments, interior decorating, department stores, drug stores, appliance stores, coin-operated car washes, photography stores construction firms (up to three employees, rising to $50 for larger firms), print shops and printing supply establishments.

Activities and businesses needing $50 business licenses include: circus or sideshow (per day), golf driving ranges, go-cart tracks, skating rinks, shooting galleries, miniature golf courses, small animal sales, kennels and hospitals, auctioneers, auto wrecking and repair, bakeries (plus $5 per vehicle), branch banks and lending institutions, brokers (including insurance and tickets) and wholesale chemical and paint stores (up to two employees and rising to $200 for more than 10 employees).

Also, cold storage facilities (up to 15 employees and $100 for each additional employee), confectionaries and convenience stores, driving schools (up to three vehicles and rising to $100 for more), medical dispensaries, dry cleaning establishments, electrical contractors, fire extinguisher service, retail hardware and paint stores, heating and air conditioning contractors, hotels, motels, rooming houses and apartment complexes (more than four units), ice manufacturers and dealers (per facility and $5 per vehicle), junk dealers and peddlers (plus $5 per vehicle), laboratories, livestock sales and lumber yards and storerooms.

Other businesses requiring a $50 business permit are meat dealers and markets (up to three employees, $2.50 for each additional employee and $5 per vehicle), milk dealers, nursing homes (up to 50 beds and 50 cents per additional bed), pawnbrokers, scavengers (annual plus $5 per vehicle), solid fuel and fuel dealers (up to 10,000 tons a year and rising to $100, plus $5 per delivery vehicle), storage of solid fuel (not for resale), fuel oil dealers (up to 20,000 gallons storage capacity and $100 per 1,000 gallons, plus $5 per vehicle) and steam boiler operators.

Businesses for which a $100 annual license will be required include live and motion picture theaters (up to 500 seats and rising to $200 for more seats or for drive-ins), public dance halls (or 20 per single dance), athletic contests and exhibits (per day, excluding park, school, etc.), banks and financial institutions (plus $50 per branch), clairvoyants, fortunetellers, and palmists (who pay $300 a year under the present ordinance), caterers (plus $5 per delicatessen), exterminators, explosives storage and handling, fish markets, flammable and hazardous chemicals storage or sale, food stores, parlors and factories, dispensers, fruit and vegetable stores, grocery stores, hospitals (up to 50 beds and 50 cents per additional bed), ice cream stores, parlors and factories, meat packing factories (up to 25 employees and rising to $200 for more than 25 employees), milk and milk products processing or bottling (per facility, $5 per vehicle), paint factories, one taxicab or limousine ($25 for each additional vehicle), motor vehicle sales and parts stores and garbage collectors (plus $5 per vehicle).

The proposed ordinance also calls for a $200 annual fee for commercial playgrounds or amusement parks. It also calls for fees from $10 to $50 for inspecting and sealing scales, weights, measures and gasoline pumps.

In other business at the special meeting, the aldermen discussed committee reorganizations. They rejected a recommendation of the mayor to combine the city hall and city building committees into one, preferring to keep both intact.

They also recommended creation of an insurance committee, made up of Aldermen Paul Bowler, Carl Kittel and Mac Warfield. Mayor Paul Schuler will name the chairman.

Parents Club to mark 11th year

Parents Without Partners, Granite City Chapter 470, is planning a reunion for all former members and their families, according to a club spokesman.

A picnic is scheduled for Sunday, June 14, at Wilson Park Shelter Three at 1 p.m.

Prospective members and their families are also invited to attend. For more information those interested are advised to call Sandy at 797-1298.

Higher education continues to be plagued by lower funding, it was related at last week's meeting of the Illinois Board of Higher Education, held at Belleville Area College.

IBHE Executive Director Richard Wagner warned the board "there could be another major round of budget reductions for higher education in the General Assembly."

He noted that Governor James R. Thompson has said he will cut $200 million from education if legislators pass two tax exemptions over his objections.

IBHE Chairman William Browder of Lincolnshire commented, "Budget reductions are not the answer. The way to go is to increase state income." He conceded that neither voters nor lawmakers seem prepared for a tax increase to boost revenue.

Larry Matejka, executive director of the Illinois State Scholarship Commission, added his view of the statewide monetary squeeze.

He said students throughout Illinois were being notified last week of a $2,200,000 shortfall in funding for state scholarships for the 1980-81 school year just completed.

About 30,000 students will be required to make up the difference between state scholarship awards announced last year and the actual amount the state will be able to pay, Matejka said.

In another discussion of state scholarships, IBHE members expressed concern over the General Assembly's decision to increase funding for academic achievement while reducing money for needy students.

Lawmakers increased merit scholarships by $2 million, Wagner said.

Martin Abegg, president of Bradley University and spokesman for the IBHE Nonpublic Advisory Committee, voiced the same fear: "Taking away from needy students to fund academic scholarships worries me."

A report on reviews of programs at state universities during 1979-80 was received and filed. It recommended that two southern Illinois University at Edwardsville degrees be eliminated because they do not appear to be educationally and economically justified.

They are the doctor of education in instructional process, and the master of arts in philosophy. The report said the doctoral instruction should be discontinued due to low retention and graduation rates, lack of focus, and the cost relative to other programs offered by SIUE.

Dr. Kenneth Shaw, SIUE chancellor, urged continuation, saying it is the only doctoral program offered at the local campus. "We feel the instructional process program is progressing well," he told the IBHE.

Cancellation of the philosophy master's program was recommended because of declines in enrollment and graduates, and because it is the fourth most expensive program offered by SIUE. It costs $211.49 per credit hour, compared to an average cost of $130.50 per credit hour for such programs at other Illinois institutions.

Wagner said procedures for similar reviews of community college programs are being formulated. He said he hopes they will be used by next year.

The IBHE approved a report reiterating its position that responsibility for providing remedial classes should rest with Illinois community colleges, not with the four-year state universities.

Placing remedial programs in the two-year colleges is seen as a step toward increasing the attention given such programs by elementary and secondary schools, the report said.

IBHE Member James Unland of Pekin assailed increases in remedial services by Illinois universities, and criticized state institutions for granting graduation credit for such courses.

"This report is a sad commentary," he said in quoting figures showing an increase in remedial courses. "It certainly doesn't speak very highly for the ungodly amount of money we are spending on education in this state."

Unland suggested that high schools begin to shoulder part of the cost of remedial courses.

IBHE Member Diego Redondo of Deerfield disagreed, stressing the need for colleges and universities to continue providing remedial courses. "We should not cast these people adrift. We should allow a certain amount of leeway while these people catch up."

The higher education board is in the third year of a five-year period set up to give state institutions time to shift the bulk of remedial education to community colleges.

A reference to the host college in the remedial education discussion showed that the BAC basic education budget is $212,900, or two percent of its total education fund budget.

IBHE Chairman Browder announced the appointment of David Pallus of Chicago to replace Merle Yontz of Peoria on the higher education board. Pallus is director of communications for FMC Corporation of Chicago. He will serve a six-year term on the IBHE.

Yontz is retiring after 12 years on the board.

Browder has been reappointed to serve a second six-year term, and will continue as chairman.

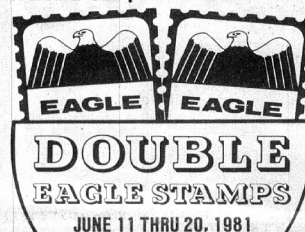

In opening remarks to the IBHE, Dr. Bruce Wissore, acting BAC president, praised the Belleville Area College board of trustees for taking "tough, sometimes unpopular" actions to reverse threatening budget trends. He said savings implemented by the board during the past year did not cut services to students.

BAC enrollment rose 17 percent and the mean grade-point average increased from 2.84 to 2.9, Dr. Wissore said.

Perennial crops ahead of schedule

By Chris Doll
Extension Garden Advisor
Most of the usual happenings for June will occur this year. Most perennial crops are ahead of schedule by five to seven days. By watching the calendar and the weather, gardeners can adjust planting and cultural operations for improved growth and yields. The following items are some to consider:

1.) Strawberry harvest is in full swing and it's time to taste for the best variety. Note that big husky plants yield the most berries.
2.) Many fruit trees are heavily infested with aphids or plant lice. Usually, they congregate on the terminals and suck the sap from young leaves. They can cause stunting of new growth and also give off honeydew which is messy and attracts ants.

Natural predators will frequently catch up with and control aphids, but sprays of malathion or diazinon will also reduce populations if applied at the right time and often enough.

3.) Plant pumpkins around the 10th to the 15th of June for Halloween. They take about 110 to 130 days to mature so they'll be ready by late October.

4.) Spray fruit trees that have a crop of fruit. Use an all-purpose fruit tree spray mix or use your own approved mix. Non-bearing trees should not need a spray unless insect pests begin feeding upon the foliage. Read and follow the label before spraying maturing fruit.

5.) Quit harvesting asparagus by mid-month. This crop has been using up stored food reserved from the roots and now needs time to replenish itself. After the last cutting, apply 2½ pounds per 100 square feet of 12-12-12 or other complete garden fertilizer to the planting. This will provide plenty of nutrients for growth for next year's crops.

6.) Continue harvesting rhubarb if you wish—providing that the plants are kept fertilized and watered. Rhubarb will continue to grow and produce if the essential ingredients of water and nutrients are present.

7.) Continue planting crops such as sweet corn, green beans, and cucumbers. This will provide extra harvest periods for expired or insect-damaged planting. Also, start some tomatoes for late season planting if you want vigorous tomato plants in the fall.

8.) Spray the trunks of peach trees and other stone fruit trees with carbaryl (Sevin) for peach borer control by June 5. Use four tablespoons of chemical per gallon and wet the trunk and crotch areas with the solution. Repeat sprays will be needed in early July and early August.

9.) Cultivate sweet potatoes and apply dacthal herbicide immediately thereafter. This treatment will provide weed control until the vines are growing and shading the soil.

10.) Don't let the weeds get ahead of you. Light hoeings or shallow cultivation will prevent weed problems. No weeds should be allowed to make seeds in the vegetable garden area.

11.) Thin apples so they are 7 to 9 inches apart, peaches to 4 to 6 inches apart and plums to 2 to 3 inches apart. Any insect, disease, or frost damaged fruits can be removed in the process. Well-spaced fruits will develop better flavor and color, and won't break down the tree.

12.) Cultivate and hoe new strawberry plantings. After the patch is cleaned up apply dacthal herbicide and water it in. This will give about eight weeks of freedom from most weeds.

PSYCHOLOGY DEGREE

TO ELLEN VOEGELI
Ellen F. Voegeli, daughter of Elmer Voegeli of 1809 Fourth St., Madison, was one of more than 850 who received degrees at Bradley University's commencement in Peoria. She earned a bachelor of science degree in psychology.

Dr. Martin G. Abegg, president of the university, presented brief remarks to the graduates and a gathering of nearly 5,500 that was on hand for the mid-morning event last month.

8 more teachers rehired; 3 get exploratory leaves

By BILL WINTER
of the Press-Record
Eight honorably dismissed teachers were hired back for the 1981-82 year at the Granite City Board of Education meeting. This increased to nine the number being retained despite dismissal notices.

As attrition occurs due to retirements and other factors, and as probable staffing needs become more definite, positions are filled wherever possible from the ranks of honorably dismissed faculty members. More are expected to be rehired.

Dismissal decisions relate to length of service in the school district, and are necessitated by financial limitations and enrollment trends.

A new element Tuesday night was the granting of year-long exploratory leaves, requested by Gary Freeseley, a psychologist with Quad-City Special Education Region I, Emaleene J. Fears, a learning disability teacher at GCHS South, and Diane Nelson, an English teacher at South.

The three plan to work in private practice, at a day care center, and in administration of automatic laundries, respectively.

Exploratory leaves, pioneered by the Granite City district, permit time off to explore potential career changes. Savings to the district result from the hiring of replacements, usually with less teaching experience and receiving lower pay.

The leaves of absence also help reduce the number of teachers who must be dismissed without later retention.

Rehired for the next school year were Cheryl Compton, a psychologist funded by Title I, at $100 daily for 20 days; and a secretary, funded by Title I.

Scheduling of Public Law 94-142 summer workshops, with a stipend of $480 to teachers for workshops 1 and 2.

Budget amendments to cover over-expenditures in five accounts ($20,600 changed to $29,465).

Hiring of Dr. Paul Bates for two days, at $150 each day plus expenses, to consult regarding South student.

Presentation of a certificate of recognition to Dr. Ruby Long of the SIUE Department of Special Education, for her years of service.

Purchase at a cost of $400 yearly of the handicapped law report, to be kept in the Quad-City office and shared with the Granite City, Madison and Venice school districts' lawyers when needed.

Continuation of Granite City Supt. B. J. Davis and Madison Supt. John Palchick as delegates to the board of the Ten-County Regional Special Education Association.

The school board accepted a $1,000 special education equipment contribution from the Granite City Eagles. The money will be used to buy a $782 starter set for adapted physical education from Plugg House, Inc., with the remainder applied toward purchase of a television set for the Parkway special education program.

The Granite City board purchased additional burglar alarm equipment costing $920 from American Sentry Systems. It will be placed at Prather Junior High School to supplement an existing alarm system there.

For $986, Missouri Machinery & Engineering Co. rebuilt a feed water pump for South High boilers.

South cheerleaders will attend a cheerleading camp Aug. 10-14 at Southwest Missouri State University, Springfield, Mo., financed by money raised by the girls and their own personal payments.

A hot air balloon will be launched Saturday by American Legion baseball team members at the South football field.

A Granite City Board of Fire and Police Commissioners examination in a school gymnasium June 13 will be used to establish an eligibility list for the fire department.

Master degree in religious education

Nancy Marie Addison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. P. Kiyasheff of Granite City, was among 86 students who graduated from Golden Gate Baptist Theological Seminary June 5 during the institution's spring commencement, held in the Marin Veteran Memorial Auditorium, Mill Valley, Calif.

She was awarded the master of religious education degree. She is married to Clay Glenn Addison, and they reside at 203 Carrey, Mill Valley.

Dr. Jack B. Johnson, executive director and treasurer of the Arizona Southern Baptist Convention, delivered the commencement address.

The seminary is an agency of the Southern Baptist Convention. It is accredited to issue degrees in theology, religious education and church music. More than 4,436 students have attended classes there during its 37 years of service.

TAXES DISTRIBUTED TO LOCAL AGENCIES

The Illinois Department of Revenue last week mailed checks totaling $62.5 million in corporate personal property replacement taxes to local units of government in the fourth of eight payments to be made during 1981. So far this year, $279 million has been distributed.

Distribution was as follows: public school districts, $146 million (52 percent); municipalities, $271 million (26 percent); county governments, $24.2 million (8.7 percent); and townships and special districts, $56 million (20 percent).

City cleanup underway

Many Granite City homeowners already have begun a card from the city to their doors informing them of the approximate date that the city will have trucks at their homes to pick up heavy items in the summer cleanup drive. Other cards are being distributed daily.

The cleanup effort, conducted in conjunction with the mayor's student summer employment program, began June 3 and will conclude with all areas of the city have been covered once.

Old furniture, tires, gutters, wood and other items too large or bulky for the regular trash service to take will be accepted if residents will stack the items next to the curb on pickup day. Caution should be taken to avoid items falling into the street, where they would pose a danger to traffic.

The city's sanitation department is reminding residents that hazardous materials will not be taken, including chemicals and paint. Brush will be removed by the street department.

Additional information of the scheduled pickup is available by calling 452-6220.

Homeowners can help eliminate mosquitoes

If the weather and Quad-City area residents cooperate, the breeding of mosquitoes this summer can be greatly slowed, according to Granite City's health inspector Emerald Dawes.

Mosquitoes are not only a summer nuisance, but they present potential health hazards as transmitters of encephalitis, malaria and yellow fever to humans and heartworm to pets.

Dawes noted that the windy and wet weather experienced lately has made it impossible for the city to do extensive spraying for mosquitoes, but spraying will be done when the weather permits.

He is asking local residents to check their yards for anything which holds standing water and will allow mosquitoes to breed. Examples include old tires, tin cans, bottles, drums and toddler swimming pools.

Leaky outdoor pipes and faucets should be repaired to avoid wet areas and the water in vases, bird baths and pet water dishes should be changed frequently, so mosquitoes cannot breed there.

"Mosquitoes need water for their early life stages, Dawes noted, saying some mosquitoes lay their eggs in standing water, where they hatch in a day or two. Others lay their eggs in old tires, tin cans or other water-holding containers and the eggs may remain for weeks or months until they are covered with water, then they hatch, he explained.

Wrigglers or larvae grow quickly into tumblers or pupae and soon the skin splits open and out climbs another adult mosquito, he noted.

Homeowners also can spray for mosquitoes on their property. Roosting areas should be sprayed with Malathion, following the label directions. Areas where mosquitoes rest during the heat of the day, including the cool leafy shade of shrubs, bushes, vines, flowers and patches of tall grass and weeds also should be sprayed.

Sheltered surfaces of the home, such as roof eaves, breezeways, garages and ceilings as well as the screens of porches also may be sprayed to reduce mosquitoes.

Before parties, sprays of 1 percent pyrethrin or 5 to 10 percent dichlorvos (DOWP or Vapona) may be lightly sprayed between tables and chairs. All three insecticides are approved by the Environmental Protection Agency, Dawes noted.

"Eliminating potential breeding grounds around your home and spraying where the adult mosquitoes hide will certainly help reduce the mosquito menace around your property. This will result in increasing your enjoyment of summer living outdoors," he concluded.

Doctor degree and attainment award to Margaret Cheadle

Margaret J. Cheadle, 4 Moorland Drive, Mitchell, has received a scholarship achievement citation from the American Medical Women's Association. She received a doctor of medicine degree from Washington University May 22.

Washington University is one of America's leading private teaching and research institutions. The more than 8,000 graduate and undergraduate students represent all 50 states and 77 foreign countries. There are 1300 full-time faculty in nine schools — including medicine, engineering, business, law, architecture, fine arts, social work, dentistry, and continuing education — as well as the College of Arts and Sciences.

Barry Gardner graduates at Air Force Academy

Barry L. Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Norman C. Gardner of 2770 Nameoki Drive, Granite City, was commissioned a second lieutenant and awarded a bachelor of science degree May 27 upon graduation from the Air Force Academy, Colorado Springs, Colo.

Gardner is a 1976 graduate of Granite City High School South.

He will now be assigned to Randolph Air Force Base, Texas, as a behavioral scientist.

Thunderbirds to perform at Scott AFB Saturday

The Thunderbirds, the precision aerial demonstration team of the U.S. Air Force, will again be featured at the annual Scott Air Force Base open house and air show on Saturday, June 13.

The base will open at 9:30 a.m. for the show which also features a display of numerous aircraft for public inspection including a C-5 Galaxy, the world's largest airplane; the bat-like British Vulcan bomber, and a C-9A Nightingale exactly like one of the two "freedom planes" that flew the 52 American hostages from Algiers to Germany.

The Thunderbirds will perform their breathtaking loops, rolls and dives beginning at 2:35 p.m. preceded by a demonstration by the Scott AFB security policemen rappelling from helicopters at 12:15; two military working dog demonstrations, and an F-4 Phantom jet fly-by.

The Air Force Honor Guard marching team will also perform in addition to the Air Force Band of Mid-America playing top-40 hits and the Belleville Black Knights Drum and Bugle Corps.

As in previous years, admission to the open house is free and food and drinks will be available.

Visitors may take I-64 past O'Fallon to the Scott Air Force Base exit. Ample parking is available.

Deny expenses to convention

On June 23, the results of a pulmonary function study done on high school students in Granite City will be released, nation-wide during a released nation-wide and she contended it would be to the city's benefit to have a representative present.

The Granite City Council has voted 6 to 4 to deny $800 expenses to Paula Case, head of the city's air pollution control department, to attend the national Air Pollution Control Association convention in Philadelphia June 21 to 26.

The vote followed a lengthy debate over the merits of conventions and their cost. Opposition to Mrs. Case attending the convention was spearheaded by Alderman Sam Whitmer of the Second Ward, who stated, "I think our people should stay in Granite City and do the work. Our people are going all over the country and even into Canada on the taxpayers' money and I think that is wrong."

"I understand the mayor has sent letters to the department heads of all departments saying, 'No spending, unless necessary.' I am told the city might have to borrow money to operate until taxes on real estate comes in. 'I see no reason for this lady to go to Philadelphia when we can get the information from SIU (Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville) or the schools," Whitmer concluded.

Mrs. Case said that at the conference, the results of an SIU study into lung damage of Granite City children will be released nation-wide and she contended it would be to the city's benefit to have a representative present.

A letter was read from R. William Rotter, chairman of the city's Air Pollution Control Board, which stated, "The board feels it is essential that Paula Case attend the conference representing Granite City in the event that questions are raised regarding the results of the study."

"The report stresses that Granite City is one of the major pollution centers in the country and that respiratory problems in the city are twice the national average. A full report on the study will be given by Paula Case after the meeting, summarizing the results and recommending appropriate solutions," according to the letter.

It was explained that the conference is eligible for 49 percent federal matching funds, so the city would have to pay 51 percent. The board recommended that Mrs. Case be given $200 for expenses plus approximately $600 for air fare. The federal government would pay about $400 and the city would pay a like amount.

Alderman Carl Kittel of the Third

Ward supported the expenditure, saying "SIU does not hold anything west of the bluffs in high esteem, unless it is under water. We need someone from Granite City (at the conference) as a watchdog to protect us."

Alderman Paul Fisk of the Third Ward asked if $400 is available in the city budget and Mayor Paul Schuler assured him the money could be found. When the vote was taken on the motion to approve the funds for the conference, the eight aldermen who voted no were Whitmer, Fisk, Warren Decatur, Margaret Nunn, Paul Ray Bowler, Mac Warfield, Mike Modrusis and Steven Saltich.

Mrs. Case was contacted Friday and said she still intends to attend the conference, if the money can be obtained. "This is the most informative and up-to-date thing in my field. From 5,000 to 10,000 experts from all over the world attend each year and exchange information on the latest state of the art technology."

"It is one place where you can solve most of your problems. I believe it is essential to my professional development and I intend to go, if at all possible." She said she will not appeal again to the city for funds to attend the convention, but will attempt to find another source of funding.

School Board hires principal at Harris

David Becherer was appointed as the new principal of Harris School by the Madison School Board in a meeting Thursday night. Becherer has been a teacher at Harris, and will serve as principal next year, provide he is certified.

Board members also decided to rehire four teachers.

July Smucker was chosen as the early childhood development teacher. Roberta Dallas, Mike Garland and Christine Johnson also were hired again, as they have the most seniority.

Dolores Folkert was chosen to serve as director of curriculum. Board members decided to advertise for the clerical position at the Louis Bae School. Anyone interested may notify the board by 4 p.m. Tuesday.

It was announced that students from Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville will be assigned to assist teachers at the elementary schools. This has been the procedure in the past, and allows the students to obtain clinical experience. Five parents who attended the desegregation hearings last week were at the board meeting, hoping to discuss the integration issue. Board members declined discussion, as they felt more time was needed to digest the information from the meetings.

Evelyn Mason, one of the parents present, said that her comments quoted last week may have been misunderstood. She is not a Harris mother, but has a daughter in Blair school. She also stated that she is in favor of busing, contrary to the previous article.

The board also decided that John Palchick, superintendent of schools, will attend the Fourth Annual Superintendent's Conference in September. Paul Bargiel also will attend an election workshop for Illinois School Board secretaries in July. Both seminars offer information which is of value to the board, it was noted.

Board members also agreed to purchase a Rockwell metal saw, on the recommendation of Assistant Superintendent of Schools Wade James.

Flowers & Gifts

by Ron Kelih

The carnation, Dianthus caryophyllus, is native to the Near East and has been cultivated for the last 2000 years. It gets its name from the Latin "carnis", or flesh. This is because the flower first appeared on earth for the first time when it sprang up from the tears Mary shed on the way to Calvary. The pink carnation has since become the symbol of mother-love. For that reason, it was chosen by Ann Jarvis of Philadelphia in 1907 as the emblem of Mother's Day, now an official holiday in the United States.

People choose to come to us at BETTY & BOB'S FLOWERS AND GIFTS, 2156 Pontoon Road, 877-8833 because of our friendly help and complete selection of flowers. 'Big Daddy' breaks barrier

Special to the Press-Record
GRANITE CITY — In the final here Sunday of the Gateway Nationals, Don "Big Daddy" Garlits came through with a clutch performance against Shirley "Cha Cha" Muldowney. And he made good on a promise in the process.

He said he'd do it. And he did it. Don "Big Daddy" Garlits, the "king of drag racers," told reporters at a press luncheon last week that he would break the mythical six-second barrier at the annual Gateway Nationals at St. Louis International Raceway. Competing in the Top Fuel Eliminator Division at the Nationals, Garlits made good on his promise here Sunday. Barely.

Garlits broke the six-second at the track, with a clocking of 5.995 seconds. Elapsed Time on the one-fourth mile drag strip. It was good enough to give Garlits the first place trophy in the Top Fuel Classification. His speed in the event was a blazing fast 237.47 miles per hour.

Muldowney finished in second place in the Top Fuels, behind Garlits. Her best time was 6.236 E.T. Her fastest speed was 203.17 miles per hour. It wasn't good enough to beat out Garlits in the final.

The Gateway Nationals victory by Garlits was his sixth in the 11-year history of the event, which is one of the "jewels" of drag racing's crown.

In the popular Funny Car Division, Don "The Snake" Prudhomme was edged out of first place by Tom Hoveland of Mason City, Iowa. His fastest speed in the final Sunday was 214.80 miles per hour. His best time of the day was a clocking of 6.47 seconds. Prudhomme finished second.

Another barrier fell in the running of the Pro Stock

Classification. He turned in the first sub-eight second run in American Hot Rod Association (AHRA) history. The run, which of course set a St. Louis International Raceway record, was clocked in a time of 7.93 seconds. His speed was 172 miles per hour. Johnson, who won his division, is from Nacross, Ga.

PARKLAND GRADUATE Students totaling 795 graduated from Parkland College, Champaign, at commencement exercises held at the Kramert Center for the Performing Arts on the University of Illinois campus. They included Rosalie Ponce of Granite City.

finals were won by Belleville's Howard Poeplig.

Top Competition Division finals were won by Howard Graves of Collins, Mo. who turned in an E.T. of 8.99 seconds and a top speed of 144 miles per hour on the quarter-mile.

Larry Runnels of Arnold, Mo. won the Stock Class finals.

Appearing with the Singing Illinoisans and Orchestra will be Martha Corbett of Grace Baptist, Jack Jenkins, Second Baptist and Ellis and Wilma Herring, Calvary Baptist, all of Granite City.

The premier performance will feature full Biblical costumes and production numbers, written by David Danner.

Hair Style & Fashions show Sunday evening

Hair Styles and Fashions will be presented at a show on Sunday, June 14, beginning at 7 o'clock in the evening at Boochie's Showcase Lounge located at 217 Roosevelt in Eagle Park.

The show will be presented by Allen Glasper owner and operator of the Designs Unlimited Family Hair Center, 308 Broadway in Venice.

Also to be featured at the show is The Prince Wells Quintet and 15 models, displaying the latest in hair styles and cuts.

Glasper has been a licensed barber since 1971 and opened the Venice business in April. He graduated from Madison High School in 1968 and is also a graduate of barber schools in Chicago and St. Louis. He also worked as a barber in Chicago for five years.

William Gathright owner of Boochie's Lounge is also a Madison High School graduate and is a candidate for his doctoral degree at St. Louis University in St. Louis. He has decorated the business establishment and intends to follow the family tradition of featuring local talent in the fields of comedy and music for exposure in the Quad-City area.

Gathright is a former teacher in the East St. Louis School System.

The public is invited to attend the show and tickets costing $5 per person may be purchased at the door on the evening of the presentation, Gathright added.

Lisa Randall in music Who's Who

The 1981 edition of Who's Who in Music will carry the name of Lisa Rene Randall of the GCHS North Choral department as one of the students selected as being among the country's most outstanding high school music students.

The head of each school's nominating committee and the editors of the annual directory included the names of students based on music ability, academic achievement, service to the community, leadership in extracurricular activities, and future potential.

STATE ENVIRONMENT DIRECTOR RESIGNING Governor James R. Thompson on Tuesday accepted the resignation of Michael P. Mauzy as director of the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency, effective July 30.

Mauzy has served as IEPA Director since August 1977. Prior to being appointed director, he served as manager of environmental programs for the agency and manager of the Division of Water Pollution Control and Laboratory Services. He has served in the IEPA since 1972. Mauzy will be joining a private environmental consulting firm in Pennsylvania.

McDonald's does in Collinsville

By TOM SCHOCKER
of the Press Record
GRANITE CITY

McDonald's manager Ray Harris was worried about his team going into Sunday's Inter-City League doubleheader here with the Collinsville Chiefs. But after his team's twelfth sweep, he didn't have a worry in the world.

McDonald's made a shambles of the Chiefs, winning easily 15-7 and 11-3. The two victories gave McDonald's a 4-1 record in Inter-City play. Corral Liqueur, at 4-0, had a bye Sunday.

John Pritchard and Terry Page, combined to lead McDonald's. It was Pritchard at the plate and Page on the mound.

"If we can get our pitching down, we'll be a threat," said Harris. "We're just finding out who can and can't pitch."

Page turned in a strong pitching performance for Harris to look over. He took to the mound in the second game and other than a two-run, two-hit first inning, mowed Collinsville down, giving up just four hits. His infield faded a bit with three errors, but Page didn't have much trouble working his way out of the jams.

Chiefs left two runners on. The game was tied 2-2. While Page was keeping Collinsville quiet on the mound, Pritchard went to work at the plate.

McDonald's didn't score until the third inning in the opener and it didn't break open the nightcap until the fifth. It was then that Pritchard went to work. After two consecutive errors allowed one run to come home, Pritchard ripped a single that scored Dan Schaus and Jeff Parker. The Pritchard lightning struck again in the very next inning. Walks to Mark McGonigal and Schaus, and a single by Bob Stegmeyer gave McDonald's another run. Then Pritchard stroked to the plate. He blasted a double to left that drove in three runs. Pritchard later hit a home run, the shot to leftfield was dropped.

"We always come from behind," said Harris. "We're hitting the ball better than last year. Pritchard has made a big difference. Nobody wanted to bat fourth and he stepped right in there and is really stinging the ball. In fact, our third, fourth and fifth batters are all making trouble for the other team."

GAME ONE
The number three and five hitters showed their stuff in the opening contest as did number two Schaus. When McDonald's finally unloaded in the third inning with four runs, Parker, baiting third, was in the thick of it. He unleashed a solid triple and scored on the same play via a Collinsville error. It also drove in a run.

Flanked behind Pritchard in the order is Ford. At the fifth spot, he cranked a two-run homer in the sixth inning when McDonald's scored six more times. In the same game, Schaus delivered a bases-clearing double for three RBIs.

McDonald's was trailing going into the fifth inning. 7-

Tri-City splits with Paducah

By TOM SCHOCKER

GRANITE CITY — It isn't like Eldon Warfield to give up on a game. He's usually a fighter to the end. But after he saw his team lose a 4-0 lead and then trail going into the seventh inning here Saturday, he was about to hang it up.

However, Warfield, Tri-City American Legion Post 11's head baseball coach, still has some things to learn about his Triplets. They don't give up. It was evident when they scored twice in the seventh to pull out an 8-7 win over Post 12 from Paducah, Kentucky.

Hitting has been a key factor concerning Warfield in the early season. It's something Tri-City has been doing little of. That lack of offense resulted in Tri-City dropping a 7-3 count, its first of the summer, in the second contest of its doubleheader with Paducah.

If the Triplets continue to play ball like they did in the opener, Warfield won't have to worry so much about their hitting. It seems kind of funny that two of Tri-City's power hitters reached base in the final seventh frame, via the bunt.

Rick Buer opened up the inning by laying down a perfect bunt. "It (the bunt) was just a perfect," said Warfield. "The only thing that would have made it better is if it would have stopped."

Looking to move the tying run over, Daren DePew also dropped a bunt as a sacrifice. But Paducah decided to try and nail Buer a second. The attempt failed. Pulling off a gutsy double, steal, Tri-City was ready for the kill. The instinct almost didn't seem like it was there, though, as the next two Triplets were retired.

However, the entire inning was a perfect example of heads up baseball. The next play proved so. Rich Cope hit a roller to second. Had Cope not been running hard to first the fielder could have easily thrown him out to end the game. But Cope was blazing down the line and the fielder was forced into throwing the ball away for an error.

Buer touched home and before Paducah knew what was going on, DePew raced for the plate from second and scored the winning run. "It was heads up baseball," said Warfield. "Buer dropped the bunt on his own. DePew came home on his own and Cope made the fielder play the ball. We kept hustling. It's nice to win that way. But I could do without those."

While DePew was being mobbed at home plate, Cope remained at first, jumping up and down with his arms in the air. His effort was the climax of a fine game performance. He had already collected two RBIs when he doubled in the second.

Again Warfield took a good look at his pitching staff. He went through four pitchers with Rich Takmanian starting on the hill. He had to be relieved in the third when Paducah exploded for five runs. Paul Eads came in and was rudely greeted as he very first pitch was smacked over the left field fence. Rick Daily hauled two innings in which he struck out the side in the fourth.

Kevin Cripps picked up the win as he hurled the final two frames. "I'm trying to take a look at all of them (pitchers)," said Warfield. "Some pitchers are only throwing two innings. They can't even get into a groove in that little time. But I'm getting a good idea of what the team can do."

Something that has been giving Warfield fits, though, has been the hitting corps. Even though Tri-City scored eight times in the first game, it only batted out eight hits. It was limited to five in the nightcap.

The most productive inning was the first. Kevin Sykes reached base by a single and after moving to second on a ground out scored when Bob Ford drilled a base hit.

The Triplets scored one more in the third and fourth, but from then on Paducah's starting pitcher owned the Tri-City offense. He finished a strong five-hit performance by setting down 10 of the last 12 batters he faced.

"Their (Paducah) a nice team," said Warfield. "But we've got to start hitting the ball. We've haven't hit with authority like I know we can. The little bit of a lay-off we had had something to do with it. Our victory was cheap, but you take them as you can get them."

Tri-City will look to improve on its 2-1 record when it begins league play against Fairview Heights at home today. Game time is set for 6 p.m.

Heading the 43 nominations for the $50,000 added Fairmount Derby, which will be run Saturday, June 13, will be six horses from the east coast. Prince Fortune, owned by Buckland Farms, trained by John Campo and ridden by Jorge Velasquez, leads the Eastern contingent. Prince Fortune's owner, trainer and jockey are the same as Pleasant Colony's winner of the Kentucky Derby and Preakness. John Campo is planning to be on hand at Fairmount Park with talented rider Jorge Velasquez.

Also nominated for the race is Tricola and Serenade King from the powerful Frank "Pancho" Martin stable in New York.

Other Eastern nominees include Amasham, Master Tommy and Pass The Tab, who was second in the Illinois Derby. The only fully nominated for the race is Carolina Command, who may have the most impressive credentials of all. Last year she won the $150,000 Gardenia at the Meadowslands in New Jersey, defeating Heavenly Cause, who is now considered the best three year old filly in the nation.

Bold Ego, who has been nominated for the race, but now appears that he will not be coming in for the Derby as he raced in the Belmont Stakes, Saturday, and racing back in one week would be asking a bit too much of the three-year old speedster.

Park slow-pitch meet

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Park District will hold its Annual July Fourth Men's Slow-Pitch Softball tournament starting Tuesday, June 30 and ending Saturday, July 4. Games will be played at Worthen and West Granite Parks.

The entry fee is $65 per team and must be paid at the time the teams register. Entries will be limited to teams presently in the Granite City Park District Softball leagues.

Teams will be allowed to pick up three players from other teams that are currently playing in the Park District leagues, providing their team is not playing in the tournament. This refers to all leagues — mens through church leagues.

Twenty-two teams will be accepted in the men's tournament. Trophies will be awarded to the top four finishing teams. The deadline for entering the tournament will be Friday, June 12. Drawings will be made Tuesday, June 16 at 7 p.m. at the Wilson Park Office. Teams may begin registering Tuesday, June 2. The tournament will be double-elimination.

LADIES COTERIE GIVES SCHOLARSHIP

The Ladies Coterie contributed a music scholarship to a local high school graduate instead of a nursing scholarship as was previously reported.

by GEORGE CREWS

In every place beer is enjoyed, sooner or later, someone will pose the age old question: What is the correct way to pour beer? Actually, it boils down to personal taste in how much of a head an individual likes. But, the head does serve an important purpose in releasing some of the carbonation and allowing the full bouquet to rise. The ideal head is about 1 1/2 to 2 inches in height. To achieve this, pour a little directly in the glass, then tilt the glass on an angle while pouring. Straighten the glass upwards again just before the glass is full. Although it is generally considered a mistake to pour beer without a head, there are, obviously, exceptions. The direct-from-bottle-to-lips method is a completely different story.

Athletes' graduation rates above normal

the Press-Record
CHAMPAIGN — Results of the NCAA-sponsored study, probably the most comprehensive of its kind, indicate that the male student-athletes at member institutions graduate at a better rate than nonathletes.

The five-year study, conducted for the NCAA by the American College Testing Program (ACT), measured the graduation rates of male students who entered college in the fall of 1975. Fifty-two percent of the male athletes in the group had graduated by the spring of 1980, while the nonathlete graduation rate was 41.5 percent. The total sample showed a graduation rate of 42.4 percent, which compared favorably to earlier studies.

The study grew out of a 1975 project undertaken by ACT for the NCAA that measured graduation rates of male undergraduates, both athletes who won varsity letters and nonathletes. As a result of the low rate of usable responses, the conclusions from that 1975 study were termed "tentative" by ACT; nonetheless, those earlier results also suggested that student-athletes graduated at the same or a higher rate than entering male freshmen nonathletes.

Following completion of the 1975 project, ACT recommended that a more controlled analysis be undertaken. Because many colleges were not equipped to monitor enrollment status of their students, the NCAA contracted with ACT to perform this function for a selected sample of institutions.

Usable data were received from 46 NCAA member institutions, primarily in Division I, with enrollment records being maintained for 36,365 men. The overall graduation rate of those 36,365 students was 42.4 percent, a finding similar to earlier research of this project. In addition, 14.4 percent of the students still were taking class work in the spring of 1980.

Included in the 36,365 were records from 4,065 student-athletes. During the five-year period studied, 52 percent of those athletes graduated and another 12.9 percent still were enrolled. Among the 32,300 nonathletes, 41.5 percent graduated, 14.5 still were enrolled and 44 percent had dropped or transferred.

Thus, only 35.1 percent of the male student-athletes had dropped or transferred, compared with 44 percent of the nonathletes. Overall, 43.2 percent of those examined had dropped or transferred. The ACT report also measured graduation rates among various sports at each institution, with six categories being used: football, basketball, wrestling, baseball, track and "all other sports."

The graduation rate was better than 41 percent in all sports measured; all sports recorded higher graduation rates than the 41.5 percent nonathlete rate for the entire sample.

In still another portion of the report, the median graduation rates for the colleges were measured. This analysis showed a 36.9 median percentage of athletes having graduated; the nonathlete rate was 33.8 percent. In addition, 14.7 was the median percentage of those athletes still enrolled.

Because the old cars are in constant need of repair, council members have determined that it would be wise to buy new ones, instead of constantly paying repair bills.

It also was decided to place speed bumps in the alley between Douglas and Calhoun Streets. It was reported that "drag races" are disturbing residents in that area, and the speed bumps will hopefully slow the traffic.

Mayor Tyrone Echols informed the council of appointment of department heads, which are as follows: William Meehan, fire chief; Farris Smith, police chief; Tom Fields, bridge manager; Alma Stanley, office manager; Roseann Koelker, comptroller; Tom Scaturro, street superintendent; Clarence Bradley, assistant street superintendent; Willie Dumas, assistant fire chief; Ed Guennivney, radio engineer; Larry Hartman, city attorney; Thomas Brill, fire truck driver; Joe Meehan, humane officer; Charlie Mize, health inspector; Benjamin Honorable, director of the office of Emergency Preparedness, and police commissioners Tim Bennett, Eddie Johnniss and Earnest Davenport.

Shepherd needed to avoid rabies shots

Quad-City area residents are being asked to watch for a light tan German Shepherd dog of medium size which bit a 9-year-old Madison boy in the 2000 block of McCasland Avenue in Madison May 29. The boy will have to undergo painful rabies shots, unless the dog is located and found to be free of rabies. Madison Humane Officer Vasil Graville said the boy was walking to the Madison Middle School when the dog bit him on McCasland Avenue.

Since the biting, Graville has searched house-to-house on McCasland, Beckwith, Harris and Skeen Street to try and find the dog, without success.

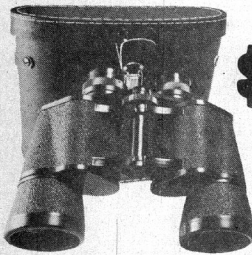

He is urging anyone knowing of a dog matching that description which may have been in that area May 29 to contact him at 452-3170 or the Madison police at 878-4300.
